* The Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) system is used by government agencies to classify workers into occupational categories for the purpose of collecting, calculating, or disseminating data.

Data sources: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics' Current Employment Statistics (CES) March 2013 benchmark, Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW) industry employment, and Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) data.

Occupational employment projections include self-employed, unpaid family workers, private household workers, farm, and nonfarm employment.

Excludes "All Other" categories. These are residual codes that do not represent a detailed occupation.

The use of occupational employment projections as a time series is not encouraged due to changes in the occupational, industrial, and geographical classification systems; changes in the way data are collected; and changes in the OES survey reference period.

- [1] Total jobs are the sum of new jobs and replacement needs.
- [2] Median hourly and annual wages are the estimated 50th percentile of the distribution of wages; 50 percent of workers in an occupation earn wages below, and 50 percent earn wages above the median wage. The wages are from 2014 first quarter and do not include self-employed or unpaid family workers.
- [3] In occupations where workers do not work full-time all year-round, it is not possible to calculate an hourly wage. The Bureau of Labor Statistics develops and assigns education and training categories to each occupation. For more information on these categories, please see http://www.bls.gov/emp/ep_education_training_system.htm
