2.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Counselor Day-October 25th
3.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demolition of Old Library on September 23—boxes being moved to Maintenance.
4.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3 new degrees: ADT’s Environmental Science, Social Work; AS Social Work & Human Services
5.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessment—Joe attending Assessment Committee meeting on September 24 at 2:50pm. Anyone welcome to come. The meeting is to help with the student services side.
6.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Room and Board Scholarship—Scholarship applications open: Students must submit the CR scholarship application and indicate they are homeless or housing insecure on one of the questions. Students can go back and edit their information after their application is submitted.
7.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alia: Flyer for upcoming events will be coming out. There will be a staff panel on addressing detours for students in October. October 5th, Alia taking a group of 24 students camping at Patrick’s Point. If anyone has donations of camping stuff, they could use them. • Trish: Is there an institutional waiver for permissions? Service dogs; Trish getting complaints about disruptive service dogs in classes, none of these dogs have been cleared through DSPS or HR. It’s becoming an issue with it not being enforced. We need a sign posted of what qualifies as a service animal. Joe to talk to Wendy about an email to students and campus wide about dogs. • We need more signage addressing dogs, smoking, vaping, skateboards etc... • Athletics: Oct 27th Corsair walk, Homecoming game Oct 26th. May need extra security at games. Fred to check in with HSU regarding what they have planned for security. Football and both soccer teams won their games. Give Bob as much notice as possible for facility usage because space is limited with construction projects. • Housing: Burke has started in his new position. • Fred: Working on building relationships with students. The police officer when hired will work with housing. • Kintay: Lost Jessica one of the counselors due to childcare. Still have Michelle Mon 8:30-5, Tuesday 8:30-5, Thursday 3-7. Martha Farr is an intern, and will be working in the pantry which will allow the pantry to be open five days a week. Referrals for housing issues should go to Kintay. Food pantry in Del Norte will open next week. Investigating the possibility that Calworks students shouldn’t be charged the student health fee.
