Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. Additional Policies, Assignments and Grading

In-class Participation Policy: Your presence and participation will greatly benefit the classroom experience for you and your classmates. For this reason, your final grade will be raised if your in-class participation is good, and penalized if your in-class participation is poor.

The following is a partial breakdown of your participation grade:

0 to 2 absences	No Deduction
3 or 4 absences	20 Point Deduction
4 or more consecutive unexcused absences	Please see the “Excessive Absence Policy” below.

Excessive Absence Policy: Missing four (4) unexcused consecutive classes in this course will significantly impact your ability to succeed, and thus, is deemed “excessive.” Any student who is absent for four (4) or more consecutive, unexcused class sessions may be dropped from the course.

NOTE: If a fellow student signs the attendance sheet for you – you will both lose 100 points from your class total. If you sign the attendance sheet for a day that you were absent – you will lose 100 points.

Participants in intercollegiate events or students with employment conditions that will cause them to miss classes should see me to discuss attendance alternatives. The only exception to this attendance policy is for an unusual emergency, such as a prolonged illness or family emergency.

I will only make allowances for such an emergency if I am notified in advance that you will be unable attend class.

Code of Conduct - Professional conduct is built upon the idea of mutual respect. Each member of the class, instructor and student alike, is responsible for creating an effective, collegial, and enjoyable classroom environment which is an essential part of the learning process. Active participation that is “on topic” is encouraged and enhances the learning process. Persistent disruptive behavior on the part of any student(s) will not be tolerated.

The remainder of your class participation points will be determined based upon (but not limited to) the following criteria:

- Attending the class. Please see attendance policy above.
- Arriving on time. Late arrivals are disruptive to both lectures and class discussion, and show disrespect to those who are on time.
- Actively participating in the Daily News discussions in class. It is not enough to simply sit in your seat and listen. Please also contribute your thoughts and ask questions.
- Minimizing disruptions. All cell phones and pagers should be turned off during class. You should not leave and re-enter the class. You should avoid engaging in side conversations after class has begun.
- Being prepared for class. You should be ready to discuss any assigned readings and to answer any assigned questions for each day’s class, including being ready to open a case assigned for that day.
- Turning off your cell phone (or any other electronic device) prior to class. Please turn your phones off prior to entering the classroom.
- RESPECT. You should act respectfully toward all class participants.

Quizzes: There will be a quiz for every chapter. For Midterm #1 (Ch. 1-5) there will be five quizzes with the “Best of Four” counting toward the grade. For Midterm #2 (Ch. 8-10) there will be three quizzes with the “Best of Two” counting toward the grade.

New Venture Presentation: The requirements for the New Venture Exercise, and related assignments, will be discussed at length in class. In brief...a portion of each class session will be devoted to discussing the many challenges that an entrepreneur faces when starting a new business. Each team will be required to utilize course concepts, and the group’s collective creativity, to create a hypothetical new venture. At the end of the semester, each team will be required to present their proposed venture to the class.

Investment Project: The requirements for the Investment Project, and related assignments, will be discussed at length in class. In brief, you will establish a financial goal, select five (5) stocks that will be tracked for 12 weeks. You will compare your stocks performance with an index, report results, along with what you learned in a PowerPoint presentation at the end of the semester.

Grading (The Bottom Line): Grades will be assigned using the following performance measures:

Participation (Roll Call =50, In-class = 50) = 100 points

Weekly insight posts (10 x 10 points each) = 100 points

Quizzes (6 x 10 points each) = 60 points

Midterms (Midterm 1=100, Midterm 2=72) = 172 points

New Venture Assignment = 100 points

Investment Project = 65 points

TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE (SUBJECT TO CHANGE) = 597 POINTS

PLEASE NOTE: Attendance is required for all presentations; there will be no make-up presentations. If you fail to attend your scheduled presentation, you will not receive any points for your group work (regardless of contributions to the team effort prior to the presentation date). For your presentation, your team will be asked to play the role of the “decision makers” within an entrepreneurial start-up company. You will present your new venture concept to a classroom of potential investors. Your collective creativity, enthusiasm, and thorough research will either convince our class to invest in your new company...or not. We will discuss the requirements of the presentation at length in class. We will discuss topics related to the "art" of public speaking and the inevitable anxiety that we all feel prior to a speech or presentation. It is my hope that we can learn to harness our nerves related to public speaking and support each other in our presentations; as they say, "we are all in this together."

PLEASE NOTE: The above point totals are tentative and subject to change. The final distribution of points may differ in particular categories depending on our progress throughout the semester. However, the above point total is a useful approximation of the requirements for succeeding in this course.

100% - 93%	A	92.9% - 90%	A-	89.9% - 87%	B+
86.9% - 83%	B	82.9% - 80%	B-	79.9% - 77%	C+
76.9% - 70%	C	69.9% - 60%	D	59.9% - 0%	F

If your final grade is “on the bubble” (e.g., 79% or 89%), class participation and attendance will be the deciding factor.
