Course Description: An introduction to the trends and opportunities in today’s dynamic business environment surveying economics, global markets, social responsibility, ownership forms, entrepreneurship, management organization, marketing, accounting and financial management.

- Student Learning Outcomes:
1. Analyze situations and apply business terms and concepts to make business decisions.
 2. Communicate effectively as writers, listeners, and speakers in social and business settings.

Special Accommodations: College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS at 707-476-4280.

Academic Support

Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.

Academic Honesty: In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student’s status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: www.redwoods.edu/district/board/new/chapter5/documents/AP5500StudentConductCodeandDisciplinaryProceduresrv1.pdf Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Syllabus for BUS-10 – V6333– Distance Education

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: cyber bullying; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and inappropriate or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at:

www.redwoods.edu/district/board/new/chapter5/documents/AP5500StudentConductCodeandDisciplinaryProceduresrv1.pdf

Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Emergency Procedures for the Eureka campus:

Please review the campus evacuation sites, including the closest site to this classroom (posted by the exit of each room). The Eureka campus emergency map is available at: (http://www.redwoods.edu/Eureka/campus-maps/EurekaMap_emergency.pdf). For more information on Public Safety, go to <http://redwoods.edu/safety/> In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building.
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building:
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel.
- Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the Incident Commander or campus authorities. (CR's lower parking lot and Tompkins Hill Rd are within the Tsunami Zone.)

RAVE – College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system. In the event of an emergency on campus you can receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones at your home, office, and cell. Registration is necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Please go to <https://www.GetRave.com/login/Redwoods> and use the “Register” button on the top right portion of the registration page to create an account. During the registration process you can elect to add additional information, such as office phone, home phone, cell phone, and personal email. Please use your CR email address as your primary Registration Email. Your CR email address ends with “redwoods.edu.” Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS

I highly recommend that you click on each of the menu buttons located on the left side of your computer when you open this class in Canvas. Review what information is located in each menu. For instance, in the menu button listed as “Modules,” you will find the weekly requirements. It is crucial for you to check the announcements regularly since I will be communicating important course information there. The following will also help ensure your success in this class. The best way to get a question answered is to post it in Canvas, not email.

- 1. Each week, check the Modules page/To Do List for that week’s required activities. Periodically, check for announcements and updated assignments, quizzes, and exams on your Canvas BUS 10 site. New assignments, quizzes, or exams are posted no later than Monday evening and will be due the following Monday by 10:00 p.m. unless otherwise indicated. Access to the week’s assignments should be no later than Tuesday morning.
- 2. Set aside specific times to work on BUS 10. Depending upon your reading speed and comprehension, you will probably spend, at a minimum, between 12 and 18 hours a week working on this class. This will include required reading time and research and participation time.
- 3. Keep a calendar with assignments, quizzes, exams, and due dates. You can keep this information on a paper calendar or datebook, or set up electronic reminders in Microsoft Outlook or almost any e-mail system.
- 4. Get your assignments in on time. Written assignments (listed as Assignment 1, Assignment 2, or Assignment 3) will not be accepted if they are more than one week late. I deduct points for late assignments (one day late = 10% reduction; more than one day = 25% reduction.) Communicate with me if you are experiencing a hardship that may prevent you from timely completing an assignment. Don’t wait until the due date or when the due date has already passed to tell me because I cannot work with you then. If you give me advance notice, I can potentially work with you to find a mutually agreeable solution.
- 5. Complete quizzes and exams BEFORE the due date. Quizzes and exams cannot be submitted late. If you wait until the last day and experience technical difficulties, I will not extend your deadline. If you e-mail requesting a re-take due to technical difficulties, you need to give me 24 hours’ notice before the deadline in order for me to respond. If you know you cannot meet a required deadline, you also need to notify me in advance. If you are employed, even if there is a death in the family, you would contact your employer for missed work. I ask for the same consideration. Notifying me in advance of a pending deadline enables me to work with you for a solution.

6. You must post in the weekly discussion forums to pass this class. Posts are worth usually the same value as a quiz, plus you earn participation points at the end of the semester based upon your contributions. Once a discussion forum has closed, I never allow students to post late, you would just receive a zero (0) for that forum.

The most important piece of advice I can give you is to STAY CURRENT in your reading and get your assignments, quizzes and exams in on time! While the on-line environment offers great flexibility, it also demands self-discipline to stay current with the schedule. Once the deadline has passed for required submissions such as online quizzes, exams, or discussion forum topics, there will be no make-ups. You will generally have at least two weeks to complete each of the written research papers, and usually one full week to take the online quizzes and exams. Keep in mind that since this is an accelerated course, we will have double the workload in half the time. A normal semester is 16 weeks, we will be completing this one in eight (8).

I wish you the best with the class and please remember to have fun with the material! Do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns

ASSIGNMENTS, DISCUSSION FORUMS, QUIZZES AND EXAMS:

CITING YOUR SOURCES. You must document all written assignments with Internet source citations including date and time, bibliographies, and references as applicable in completing coursework using the MLA style. Please refer to the MLA Guide (found at <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>) or available at the Library. Plagiarism will not be tolerated, and will result in an automatic grade of zero. Copying and pasting information from the Internet, without citing the source and using quotations, is considered plagiarism. Always attribute your source of information.

When Internet research is required or used to supplement a written assignment that parallels the chapter topic material for any given week, remember to cite all your research sources! I will clearly specify the recommended length of each research paper when assigned. All papers should use 12-point font and be double-spaced. I want all of you to get credit for your original work, and other owners of copyrighted materials desire the same.

ASSIGNMENT FILENAMES. Name all submitted assignments beginning with your last name and first initial, and assignment number and name. For example: Example: RowanS-Assignment 1 – Article Summaries.

This naming convention accomplishes two things. First, it identifies the owner of the document. I want to make sure you receive credit for your work! Second, it identifies the assignment number.

If you do not use Microsoft Word, it is important to submit your files in .rtf (rich text format) so I will be able to open and review the files in Microsoft Word (if you do use MS Word, a .doc or .docx file format is fine). I sometimes cannot open files created in Word Perfect or Microsoft Works format. After you write a paper or complete an assignment, to save the file in .rtf (this stands for rich text format), click on the File/Save As command and choose "rich text format" (.rtf) as the file type. Save the file to your personal computer or flash drive so you can attach it to your submission.

I will not accept any assignment saved in a .wps or other format. If you do not have Microsoft Word, you may download a program called Open Office, which will allow you to create a compatible document that you can save in an .rtf format. All students at CR have access to Microsoft Word. Canvas allows only the types of documents I specify for that assignment. The only exceptions to this are the stock assignment chart that can be submitted in an Excel spreadsheet or in the rich text format chart I provide, and the Extra Credit Balance Sheet.

GRADING: Once you have submitted your assignment, I will grade and return it to you electronically as soon as possible. Depending on the complexity of the assignment, I try to get your work returned within 1 - 2 weeks from the final due date. When class is at capacity (50 students), it may take me a little longer to grade lengthy assignments.

ASSIGNMENTS: Each week I will specify the assignment(s) for the week as well as the due dates and possible points. Assignments must be turned in by the assigned due date to get full credit. You may submit an assignment (not discussion posts or quizzes/exams) up to one week late with a reduction in points. For example, if you submit a perfect (A) assignment late, you may only receive a C. I will not accept assignments turned in more than one week past the due date WITHOUT PRIOR INSTRUCTOR APPROVAL. It is very important to get your assignments in on time! Assignments are listed as: Assignment 1, Assignment 2, and Assignment 3. In addition, you will have a Final Project (completed in two parts) and a Balance Sheet extra credit worksheet. Assignments are different from Discussion Forum postings. Discussion forum posts may not be submitted late.

I understand that emergencies or difficult circumstances arise from time to time. If you have an emergency, and you contact me BEFORE an assignment due date, I will consider extending the deadline. My best advice is to not wait until the last minute to complete your assignments. I allow one week to complete the requirements, and up to two weeks to complete specific assignments, so waiting until the last day, and then experiencing problems, does not constitute an emergency. The key is communication. Please keep me informed of any difficulties that may prevent you from achieving success so I can help you or direct you to someone who can.

DISCUSSION FORUMS: Once a discussion forum has closed, there will be no further opportunity to contribute. No exceptions. Only the students who fulfill all the requirements in their post will receive full credit. I usually number the items in the requirements so it will be easy for you to check off that you have completed all them. Please read ALL of the requirements for the weekly discussion forums, including how many other students you are required to respond to.

QUIZZES AND EXAMS. No later than Monday evening of each week, I will post a new online quiz or exam on Canvas. Some weeks I may post several quizzes if we are covering more than one chapter. Unless otherwise noted, you will have until 10:00 p.m., the following Monday, to complete each quiz or exam. By opening the appropriate Module link, you will find complete instructions for that week's assignment, including the due date and recommended textbook reading schedule. If there is a delay on my part in posting a requirement, I will extend the deadline for submission. Exams and Quizzes will be administered electronically via Canvas. While Canvas automatically grades exams and quizzes, if you disagree with an outcome, please communicate with me. Trust me: I am on YOUR side when it comes to fair grading! Please contact me via Canvas to have me review a score that you feel is in error.

COURSE GRADES

I will base your grade for this course on these activities:

- written assignments, research papers, formal business communications
- online chapter quizzes
- exams based on reading assignments
- points earned in discussion forums
- participation points

The following chart shows the minimum number of points assigned to each activity.

Assignment	Points	Total
3 Assignments excluding the Final Project	25 to 100	175
Final Project (2 parts)	50	50
15 Quizzes	10	150
3 Exams	50	150
9 Discussion Forums*	10+	90+
Participation Points	5	45
Total:		692+

I RESERVE THE RIGHT TO ADJUST THE SCHEDULE OF ASSIGNMENTS FROM WHICH YOUR GRADE WILL BE BASED, INCLUDING NUMBER OF ASSIGNMENTS, QUIZZES, EXAMS, AND FORUMS.

At the end of the semester, your total points will be used to determine your grade. Your points will be converted to percentages and your grade will be determined as follows:

100-94	A
93-90	A-
89-87	B+
86-83	B
82-80	B-
79-76	C+
75-70	C
69-60	D
59 or less	F

NOTE: A grade of “D” is not passing in terms of transferability to a four-year college or university.

Participation. The discussion forum is another REQUIRED element in the learning experience and can be quite interesting and stimulating. I also expect students to be involved in a Discussion Board topic each week when I post a topic, if you desire to succeed in this course. I will post a chapter-related topic and students will have a full week to post their research, thoughts and views on the Discussion Board. To receive full credit for the assigned points, you must answer the question thoroughly, and in some cases, you must do research to substantiate your answer. You must also respond to other students as specified in order to receive full credit. You may earn a minimum of 135 points combined under the discussion and participation section of your grade for the semester.

Instructor Communication: Excluding weekends and holidays, I will respond to student questions/concerns within 48 hours. I normally will respond within 24 hours or less. If students send a message that pertains to all participants, I may send a general reply message to all. Otherwise, I will provide specific feedback to you. For a faster response, Message me in Canvas.

Dropping the class. If you intend to drop this class, you must do so via the “Add/Drop” process Admissions requires. Census date is 6/08/2018. If you have missed participating in requirements before census date, you run the risk of being dropped from the class. Again, communication with me is crucial.

The last day for student-initiated withdrawals (with a “W” on your transcript) or faculty-initiated drops is Thursday, 6/21/2018. I may drop a student from the class after he/she has failed to submit three (3) consecutive, unexcused, required submissions, or failed to participate in a minimum of five (5) discussion forums. The submissions may include participation in the discussion forums, taking a quiz or exam, or submitting a written assignment. Please refer to the Student Handbook for further information. Please refer to the following chart for the schedule of weekly requirements and due dates.

When we have quizzes and exams scheduled during the same week, the quizzes are due on Saturday at 10:00.

As you read this syllabus, please read across the chart. The first column lists the week of class, beginning on Monday. The second column lists the chapters we will be reading and discussing that week. The third column shows the quizzes and/or exams scheduled for that week. The fourth column shows the additional written assignments announced that week, if any. The last column shows the due date of the assignments announced in the previous column. For instance, in Week 5, I will announce Assignment 3– the PowerPoint Presentation assignment, which will be due July 23. In Week 6, we will be reading Chapters 14 and 15. We will have a quiz over Chapters 14 and 15. Exam 3 will be due by Thursday, July 25, at 10:00 p.m. If you have questions about how to interpret this schedule of activities, please contact me.

IMPORTANT CHANGE: Faculty members have the authority to drop students from class for non-participation even after census date (June 8), up until the last day for voluntary withdrawal from class (July 6). If you stop participating, you need to withdraw from the class through Web Advisor, or I may drop you. Please keep in mind that by law, you may only register for a class three times.
