Catalog Description

An introduction to the trends and opportunities in today's dynamic global business environment surveying economics, global markets, social responsibility, ownership forms, entrepreneurship, management organization, marketing, accounting and financial management.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Analyze situations and apply business terms and concepts to make business decisions.
2. Communicate effectively as writers, listeners, and speakers in social and business settings.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

This is a transfer-level class that assumes students have college-level reading and writing skills. Students who do not possess those skills are likely to find this course very difficult.

Textbook:

The required textbook for this class is BUSN, 11th edition (BUSN11) by Kelly and Williams, Cengage publishing, ISBN 978-1-337-40713-7. No electronic/online access code is required, so your best option is to buy a used copy of the textbook. Googling "BUSN ISBN 978-1-337-40713-7" should help you locate affordable used copies of the textbook.

Accessibility

Students will have access to online course materials that comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and College of the Redwoods policies. Students who discover access issues with this class should contact the instructor.

College of the Redwoods is also committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

During COVID19, approved accommodations for distance education classes will be emailed to the instructor by DSPS. In the case of face to face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments cannot usually be accommodated.

Support for online learners during COVID-19

In response to COVID-19, College of the Redwoods moved the majority of its courses online to protect health and safety. As the faculty and students adjust to this change, clear communication about student needs will help everyone be successful. Please let me know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. I want every student to thrive.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

There will be 1000 points possible over the course of the semester. Class grades will be assigned based on the following cut-offs: 930 is an A, 900 is an A-, 870 is an B+, 830 is a B, 800 is a B-, 770 is a C+, 700 is a C and 600 is a D. You will earn these points through:

Canvas Quizzes: (Over 300 points possible, thus 30% of your final grade) These will be mostly multiple choice and numerical quizzes. You will get 3 attempts on each quiz. Unless otherwise noted, there will be Canvas quizzes due every Sunday night at 11:55 pm.

Participation: (Up to 10 points possible per week for up to 10 weeks, so 100 points possible, thus 10% of your final grade). Each week, you'll have two options for class participation – the Canvas discussion forums or attending a Zoom discussion.

- Option A: By 9 am Monday each week, I will post one or more discussion prompts to a weekly discussion forum. Your response to my initial question will be worth up to 4 points and is due by midnight Wednesday. Responding to a classmate's initial post will be worth up to 3 points per response and your responses are due by midnight on Sunday.
- Option B: (Experimental) I will experiment with hosting two Zoom discussion sessions per week. This will be a discussion, not a lecture. You can earn 5 points by attending one of the sessions. You can upgrade that to 10 points by actively participating in the session. You can show evidence that you prepared for the discussion by attempting the week's Canvas quizzes and bringing questions about parts of the quiz that were tricky for you. You can also show evidence that you prepared by looking at the questions in the discussion forum and coming prepared to discuss those verbally.

Right now, I am planning on the sessions to be 8:30 – 9:30 am Wednesday mornings and 2:30 – 3:30 pm Thursday afternoons. If not many students are interested in this option, I may reschedule these sessions or abandon this option.

New Venture Project: (600 points, thus 60% of your final grade.) The requirements for the New Venture project and related assignments will be detailed on Canvas. The basic idea of the project is that you'll be working in groups of 3 or 4 students to come up with an idea for a hypothetical new business, research its viability and plan for overcoming the obstacles you expect to encounter. Your project will consist of the following parts -- please see the Assignments area for more detail on each.

- NVP Team Contract (50 points) Due 10/18
- NVP Draft (100 points) Due 11/22
- NVP Peer Review (50 points) Due 12/4
- NVP Final Version (400 points) Due 12/18

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. It does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
