Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Your grade will be determined out of 1000 points. Class grades will be assigned based on the following cut-offs: 930 is an A, 900 is an A-, 870 is an B+, 830 is a B, 800 is a B-, 770 is a C+, 700 is a C and 600 is a D.

You will earn these points by three main types of work:

Canvas Quizzes: (Over 300 points possible, thus 30% of your final grade) These will be mostly multiple choice and numerical quizzes. You will get 3 attempts on each quiz. Unless otherwise noted, there will be Canvas quizzes due every Sunday night at 11:55 pm.

Weekly Participation: (15 points possible per week, maximum of 100 points = 10% of your final class grade.). You have two options to earn participation points each week.

Option 1: You'll earn participation via the Canvas discussion forums. Your response to my initial question will be worth up to 7 points and is due by midnight Wednesday. Responding to a classmate's initial post will be worth up to 4 points per response and your responses are due by midnight on Sunday.

Options 2: Attend a live Zoom discussion section. These live Zoom sessions will run 10 am – 11:30 am on Thursdays. I will send out a link to the Zoom session in the weekly announcement. To earn full credit, please make sure you have looked over the week's discussion questions and are prepared to discuss them.

New Venture Project: (600 points, thus 60% of your final grade.) The requirements for the New Venture project and related assignments will be detailed on Canvas. The basic idea of the project is that you'll be working in groups of 3-5 students to come up with an idea for a hypothetical new business, research its viability and plan for overcoming the obstacles you expect to encounter. Your project will consist of the following parts -- please see the Assignments area for more detail on each.

- NVP Team Contract (50 points) Due 6/11
- NVP Draft (100 points) Due 7/2
- NVP Peer Review (50 points) Due 7/9
- NVP Teammate Evaluation (50 points) Due 7/20
- NVP Final Version (350 points) Due 7/20

I will use the results of the Teammate Evaluation to adjust your score on the rest of the project. If your teammates rate you above average, I'll give you a bump up on the rest of the project. If your teammates rate you below average, I'll reduce your score on the rest of the project.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
