Catalog Description

A study of how managers use accounting information in decision-making, planning, directing operations and controlling. This course focuses on cost terms and concepts, cost behavior, cost structure and cost-volume-profit analysis. The course includes issues relating to cost systems, cost control, profit planning, and performance analysis in manufacturing and service environments.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Explain and apply managerial accounting concepts and methods for financial statement analysis.
2. Apply CVP analysis to analyze the relationship among cost, volume, and profit.
3. Prepare a master budget and relate the budget to planning and control.
4. Explain and apply different cost accounting methods to calculate costs and analyze cost variances
5. Make managerial decisions using relevant information.
6. Use a spreadsheet to solve problems related to management accounting

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

Prerequisite: Business 1A. Also please remember that is a transfer-level class that assumes students have college-level reading and writing skills. Students who do not possess those skills are likely to find this course very difficult.

Textbook:

The required textbook for this class is Financial and Managerial Accounting, 9th Edition, John Wild and Ken Shaw, ISBN: 978-1-265-88487-1. You will need access to the McGraw-Hill Connect system. If you took Bus 1A in Spring 2023, you may be able to continue using your access from that class. Otherwise, you'll need to purchase a textbook bundle that includes access to the Connect system.

Educational Accessibility & Support

College of the Redwoods is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for qualified students who could benefit from additional educational support and services. You may qualify if you have a physical, mental, sensory, or intellectual condition which causes you to struggle academically, including but not limited to:

- Mental health conditions such as depression, anxiety, PTSD, bipolar disorder, and ADHD
- Common ailments such as arthritis, asthma, diabetes, autoimmune disorders, and diseases
- Temporary impairments such as a broken bone, recovery from significant surgery, or a pregnancy-related disability
- A learning disability (e.g., dyslexia, reading comprehension), intellectual disability, autism, or acquired brain injury
- Vision, hearing, or mobility challenges

Available services include extended test time, quiet testing environments, tutoring, counseling and advising, alternate formats of materials (e.g., audio books, E-texts), assistive technology, on-campus transportation, and more. If you believe you might benefit from disability- or health-related services and accommodations, please contact Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). If you are unsure whether you qualify, please contact DSPS for a consultation: dsps@redwoods.edu.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

There will be 1000 points possible over the course of the semester. Class grades will be assigned based on the following cut-offs: 930 is an A, 900 is an A-, 870 is an B+, 830 is a B, 800 is a B-, 770 is a C+, 700 is a C and 600 is a D. You will earn these points through:

Connect Quizzes: (Over 420 points possible, thus about 42% of your final grade.) These will be mostly multiple choice and numerical quizzes. You will get unlimited attempts on each quiz. Unless otherwise noted, there will be a Connect quiz due every Sunday night at 11:55.

Our section web address is:

<https://connect.mheducation.com/class/m-dennis-fall-2023-1>

Weekly Homework: (Over 480 points possible, thus about 48% of your final grade.) We will have 13 weekly homework assignments worth 40 points each. Unless otherwise noted, there will be a homework assignment due every Sunday night at 11:55 pm. The late penalty for homework is 10 points per day or fraction thereof.

Participation: (Up to 10 points possible per week for up to 10 weeks, so 100 points possible, thus 10% of your final grade). By 9 am Monday each week, I will post one or more discussion prompts to a weekly discussion forum. Your response to my initial question will be worth up to 4 points and is due by midnight Friday. Responding to a classmate's initial post will be worth up to 3 points per response and your responses are due by midnight on Sunday.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student’s status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas
