Course Description: English 150 is a course in the development of college-level reading, writing, and critical thinking skills, emphasizing basic argumentation. Students analyze ideas and structure in assigned readings and compose essays supporting arguable thesis statements. The lab component of the course is scheduled in the Writing Lab (DM 2), where students receive individualized instruction in critical reading, in the conventions of standard written English, and in all stages of the writing process.
Student Learning Outcomes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Develop an effective, thesis-driven argument appropriate to an academic audience.</li><li>2. Critically read and respond to argumentative texts.</li><li>3. In a multi-stage process, incorporate feedback (from instructors and peers) in essay planning and drafting.</li><li>4. Apply basic grammar and punctuation rules, particularly those that address sentence boundaries.</li></ol>
Required Books and Materials: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Real Essays with Readings, 4th Edition. Susan Anker. There are no pluses or minuses. There is no extra credit.

40% Essays (5 essays, at least 750 words each, with one timed essay)

20% Competency Essay (90 minute, in-class essay)

10% Portfolio (two revised essays + cover letter)

30% Homework, quizzes, tests, quizzes, etc. (cannot be made-up if absent)

All essays must be in MLA format and submitted in hard copy. All take-home essays must be posted electronically to Turnitin.com.

Attendance:

You are expected to attend all sessions of each class and lab. You may not miss more than two weeks of class (the equivalent of 4 classes). If you exceed the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, I will notify you that you have been dropped. After that notification, you still must go into Web Advisor and withdraw from the class in order not to receive an F.

Repeatability: English 150 may only be attempted three times. Withdrawing after the drop deadline counts as an attempt, as does a D or F grade.

Special accommodations: College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your DSPS accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS.

Academic Misconduct: Cheating, plagiarism, collusion, abuse of resource materials, computer misuse, fabrication or falsification, multiple submissions, complicity in academic misconduct, and/ or bearing false witness will not be tolerated. Violations will be dealt with according to the procedures and sanctions proscribed by the College of the Redwoods. Students caught plagiarizing or cheating on exams will receive an "F" in the course. The student code of conduct is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/District/Board/New/Chapter5/Ap5500.pdf>

College of the Redwoods is committed to equal opportunity in employment, admission to the college, and in the conduct of all of its programs and activities.
