- 1 green book (available in CR Bookstore)
- A college-level dictionary
- A flash drive or some other means of backing-up your work

Course Overview:

- Course Description: English 1A is a transfer-level course in critical reading and reasoned writing. Students analyze issues and claims presented in visual, oral, or written arguments and write analytical and argumentative essays based on those issues. Research and source-based writing, employing correct MLA documentation, is required.
- Prerequisite: English 150 (or equivalent) with grade of “C” or better or appropriate reading and writing scores on the placement exam.
- Student Learning Outcomes
Students successfully completing this course will be able to:
 - Analyze argumentative claims.
 - Respond to arguments with persuasive critical essays.
 - Locate, synthesize, and document sources for use in response to arguments.
 - Revise and edit for sentence structure and mechanics.

- Course Description/Goals: Welcome to English 1A! This course will require much from you, yet it offers much in return. English 1A is a rigorous, comprehensive course designed to increase your critical thinking, reading, and writing skills. You'll be doing an extensive amount of reading, writing, and discussing for this class. The potential benefits, though, are worth your efforts. Engaging in activities such as reading and analyzing complex texts, developing extended written analytical arguments—as well as participating in intellectual class discussions and peer group activities—sharpens the critical thinking skills that will serve you well both in college and in your life beyond the classroom.

Over the course of the semester, you will learn different strategies to help you engage in intellectual conversations (both oral and written discourses). Upon successful completion of this course, you will have a deeper understanding of how to use language effectively in different situations and for different audiences and purposes. Additionally, you will have learned something of how place, language, and culture interact to shape our understanding of ourselves and the world we inhabit.

English 1A is primarily a workshop course. In this class, we will endeavor to create a supportive community environment. In whole class and small group settings, we will work together to develop the abilities to give appropriate, productive feedback, present ideas in a well-thought-out manner, and listen and respond to the ideas of others with interest and respect. In developing these abilities, you will be sharpening your critical thinking skills as well.

Course Requirements:

- ❖ Major Papers: You will write three major essays (each ranging from 1000 to 2000 words). MLA formatting and documentation are required for all essays. At least two of these papers will require research in the library and on the internet. All essays are to be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced. I accept hard copies only. You may e-mail me a copy of an assignment if you're absent on the day it's due (to show you've completed it), but you will not receive credit for it until you've turned in a hard copy version when you come back to class. (See Deadline & Make-up Policy section for more details.)

You will need to maintain a working portfolio (in a pocket folder) for each major essay. The working portfolio is comprised of all writing pertaining to this paper, including a final, polished draft, all notes, prewriting, earlier drafts, peer feedback, conference notes, & so forth. In other words, save everything. In order to receive full credit for a major essay, you must submit it on the due date in a working portfolio containing all the required documents. Note: I do not accept essays without a working portfolio.

Major Paper Due Dates

Essay #1 (Revised, Polished Draft in working portfolio)	Feb 28 th
Essay #2 (Revised, Polished Draft in working portfolio)	Apr 8 th
Essay #3 (Revised, Polished Draft)	May 13 th

All due dates are subject to change if necessary and with appropriate notice.

- ❖ www.turnitin.com: In addition to the stapled, hard copies of each of your essays that you submit, you will also submit electronically each of your essays to www.turnitin.com via MyCR. (If you're unsure about how to perform this activity, don't worry; we will be discussing in class how to submit essays when the time is appropriate.) At the end of the semester, the recorded grades for any essays that have not been submitted to turnitin.com will be deleted from the gradebook and you will receive a "zero" for the essay.

- ❖ Course Readings & Responses: You will be assigned many readings over the course of the semester. You can expect upwards of 50 pages of readings per week. All readings must be completed on the date due. Skimming readings will not be sufficient for English 1A. We will work together to develop your ability to engage in "active" reading, but you must do your part. You will need to read and reread the assigned texts, making note of the ideas presented and questioning and testing these ideas against your own.

You will need to complete all assigned readings in order to: 1) actively participate in class discussions, and 2) write meaningful responses to the texts. You will be writing a number of short responses (generally, one or two per week) to these readings. The responses will usually be one or two pages long. A one page response must be one full page to receive credit.

These short papers are a means for you to reflect on our readings, to formulate questions and ideas and connect these readings to your own experiences, knowledge-bases, and/or a particular aspect of the world. They are also a means for developing and displaying your critical thinking skills and, therefore, will require a certain amount of time and effort on your part. You can expect to spend, on average, 8 hours per week (outside class) in completing the reading and writing assignments for this course.

Note: You have the option of developing a reading response into a major essay. Keep this in mind as you read and write responses, and if you feel inspired to delve deeper into some idea, question, or issue, by all means, do so!

- ❖ Grammar Review & Practice (as needed)

- ❖ Engaged Participation in Class Activities, Peer Groups Exercises, and Whole Class Discussions: (see Attendance & Participation section for more details)

- ❖ Regular Class Attendance: (see Attendance & Participation section for details)

- ❖ Formatting Assignments: All writing (other than in-class) must be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced, the pages formatted with one inch margins. Staple pages together.

- ❖ Deadline & Make-Up Policies: I do not accept late work. All assignments must be turned in on the date they are due to receive credit. As noted in other sections, though, if you are absent, you may email me a copy of your homework by 3 pm on the day it is due (followed by a hard copy turned in to me when you return to class) to receive credit.

Grading Policy:

- ❖ Attendance & Participation (50 points possible): English 1A is a workshop course. Both your presence and your engaged participation in class are vital not only for your individual success but for the success of the class as a whole. The attendance points I assign you (following every class meeting) will be based just as much on your preparedness and participation as your presence in that day's session. For specific attendance requirements see attendance section below.

- ❖ 3 Major Essays Submitted with Prewriting and Earlier Drafts on Required Due Date (50+75+100 = 225 points possible): All drafts are to be included in the working folder. Each essay will have been read and responded to in (at least) one peer group session (all peer responses are to be included in the working portfolio).

- ❖ 2 Discovery Drafts (15 pts each = 30 pts possible):

- ❖ 4 Reading Responses (10 pts each = 40 pts possible): I will assign five (5) out-of-class reading responses over the course of the semester. The best four (4) scores will be calculated for a grade. See Course Readings & Responses section for more details.

- ❖ 3 Formal In-Class Writings (10 pts each = 30 pts possible): I will administer four (4) formal in-class writings over the course of the semester. The best three (3) scores will be calculated for a grade.

- ❖ Final Reading Exam (50 pts.):
- ❖ In-Class & Online Writing, Quizzes, Homework Assignments, & Group Presentations (75 points possible): There will be many opportunities to accumulate points through activities such as informal in-class writing (quick writes (QWs), freewrites, pre-reading questions, etc.), group activities, and homework assignments. In addition, you may be participating in one (or more) small group presentations (time permitting).

- ❖ Final Course Grade: There are a total of 500 points available for this course. Final grades will be based on the following scale: A (470-500), A- (450-469), B+ (435-449), B (415-434), B- (400-414), C+ (385-399), C (365-384), C- (350-364), D (300-349).

- ❖ Extra Credit: The official CR policy stipulates that there is NO extra credit available in English 1A.

Attendance and Participation Policies:

Since much of this class revolves around our discussions, you will need to be in class every day, on time, and prepared to engage in the day's activities. Please note that I will be taking attendance (in one form or another) every class period. I will also be keeping track of individual participation in group discussions and activities. (Grades are influenced by the level of participation in class.) Being late to class also affects your grade.

It is imperative that you come to class on time and prepared to actively participate. Lateness, lack of preparation, and inattentiveness will not only affect your ability to succeed in this course, it will also have an effect on the functioning of the class as a whole. Please keep this in mind.

The English Department Attendance Policy:

Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they are enrolled. Students may not miss more than two weeks of class. For example, if a class meets twice a week, students should not exceed 4 absences for the semester. If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After that notification, students are still responsible to go into Web Advisor and withdraw themselves from the class, in order not to receive an F. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in failure.

So what does this mean for our class? Since this English 1A class meets three times a week, students should not exceed six absences for the semester.

Before Census (Week 3): Be aware that if you've missed multiple classes and/or have not been turning in work, your name may be cleared from the class roster following Friday of Week 3 (Census Week). If you're in this boat and haven't talked to me yet about your situation, you should do so as soon as possible.

Academic Dishonesty Policy:

Plagiarism is a serious offence which can result in failing English 1A. We will be discussing in class about acceptable ways of including the words of others in your writing, but if you ever have any questions about whether or not you may be plagiarizing something in your writing, please come see me before you turn in your paper, so we can avoid any potential misunderstandings about what your intentions may have been.

Academic Misconduct: The student code of conduct is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/District/Board/New/Chapter5/Ap5500.pdf>

Outside Assistance for English 1A:

❖ Instructor Conferences: Studies show that students who meet often with their instructors are more successful in their classes. I encourage you to make an appointment with me to discuss any questions or concerns you may have at any stage of the writing process. If you would like a conference, please speak with me (in person or email) and we will arrange a mutually convenient time to meet.

❖ The Writing Center: All students can benefit from the feedback of interested readers of their writing. The CR Writing Center is staffed with trained, knowledgeable instructors and peer tutors who can help you with your essays or other writing projects. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, however, you need to enroll in English 52 (a half unit).

Note: My English 52 lab hours are Tuesdays from 4:25 – 7:25 pm & Thursdays from 6:00 – 7:25 pm.

❖ The Academic Support Center: The Academic Support Center also offers tutoring service (free to students).

❖ Special Accommodations: Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations should contact Disabled Student Programs and Services. Some accommodations may take up to several weeks to arrange. Please see me as soon as possible if you would like help arranging accommodations. Your success in this class is my main consideration. I will be pleased to help in whatever way I can.

The instructor reserves the right to add, delete, or revise sections of this course or syllabus. Changes will be announced in class.
