Syllabus for: English 1A
Semester & Year:	Summer 2014
Course ID and Section Number:	English 1A—E4814
Number of Credits/Units:	4.0
Day/Time:	MTWTh 11:00-1:05
Location:	Humanities 215
Instructor's Name:	Dr. Sean Herrera-Thomas
Contact Information:	Office location and hours: Science 216F, by apt.
	Phone: (707) 476-4324
	Email: sean-herrerathomas@redwoods.edu

Course Description: A transfer-level course in critical reading and reasoned writing. Students analyze issues and claims presented in visual, oral, or written arguments and write analytical and argumentative essays based on those issues. Research and source-based writing, employing correct MLA documentation, is required.

Student Learning Outcomes: 1) Analyze argumentative claims; 2) Respond to arguments with persuasive critical essays; 3) Locate, synthesize, and document sources for use in response to arguments; 4) Revise and edit for sentence structure and mechanics.

Special accommodations: College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS.

Academic Misconduct: Cheating, plagiarism, collusion, abuse of resource materials, computer misuse, fabrication or falsification, multiple submissions, complicity in academic misconduct, and/ or bearing false witness will not be tolerated. Violations will be dealt with according to the procedures and sanctions proscribed by the College of the Redwoods. Students caught plagiarizing or cheating on exams will receive an "F" in the course.

The student code of conduct is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: http://www.redwoods.edu/District/Board/New/Chapter5/Ap5500.pdf

College of the Redwoods is committed to equal opportunity in employment, admission to the college, and in the conduct of all of its programs and activities.

Milgram, Stanley. Obedience to Authority: An Experimental View Miller, Arthur. The Social Psychology of Good and Evil. Hacker, Diana and Nancy Sommers. The Bedford Handbook (8th ed.). A notebook for taking notes in class and on your reading assignments A binder to keep all of the course materials in one place. Turnitin.com The English Department requires all English I.A students to submit their essays to Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, inccessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit' be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct Classroom The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens	Required	Lower, Wendy. Hitler's Furies: German Women in the Nazi Killing Fields.
Miller, Arthur. The Social Psychology of Good and Evil. Hacker, Diana and Nancy Sommers. The Bedford Handbook (8th ed.). Required Materials	_
Required Materials	Texis	, ,
Required Materials
Turnitin.com The English Department requires all English 1A students to submit their essays to Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, inccessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written worldoor ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during
Turnitin.com The English Department requires all English 1A students to submit their essays to Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, i necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during
Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, i necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus discipl	Materials	A binder to keep all of the course materials in one place.
Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, i necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus discipl
note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, i necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently manture in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. The Engl	Turnitin.com necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. The English Department Attendance Policy		Turnitin.com, which scans them for previously written or published material. Please or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and, possibly, an F in the course and academic probation. Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		note that I will review all apparent cases of academic dishonesty with the student and, if
Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		necessary, the appropriate administrative officials. Using another person's written work
Participation Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		or ideas without proper attribution will result in a failing grade on the assignment and,
Active participation in-class is required throughout the semester. You should come to each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they each class meeting with at least one question or observation about the reading assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they	Participation assignments; furthermore, you should be prepared to engage with one another's ideas about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they about the readings. Extra Credit The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		,
The English Department at College of the Redwoods mandates that no "extra credit" be awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they awarded in English courses. If you are concerned about maximizing your points earned this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they	Extra Cradit this semester, I heartily encourage you to give your best effort in each assignment and to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they	Extra Credit to be willing to revise your essays in response to feedback from your peers and instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		, instructor (and tutors in the Writing Center if you are enrolled in English 52). I will allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they allow one revision of each essay to count for up to 85% of the assignment's point value (in lieu of the points earned on the first submission). Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they Classroom Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they Conduct The content of our reading assignments and class discussions will involve a variety of important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · important and compelling personal and social issues that are inherently mature in their subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they subject matter and that resonate deeply with individuals in our class. Please be aware that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they that this course examines adult human experiences through the lens of academic discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they	Conduct discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		1
Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines. Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		discourse. Also, please remember to treat your classmates and instructor in a courteous,
Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		sensitive, and respectful manner. Any student who violates CR's Code of Student result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		Conduct will be sanctioned in accordance with school guidelines.
result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they
result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		Please note that "texting" or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will disciplinary authorities. Please turn off cell phones before entering the class. Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they		result in your being temporarily suspended from class and referred to campus
Attendance The English Department Attendance Policy Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they
Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they	Attendance	A V
		G
		Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they l are enrolled. Students may not miss more than two weeks of class. For example, if		are enrolled. Students may not miss more than two weeks of class. For example, if · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		a class meets thrice a week, students should not exceed 6 absences for the semester. If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After that notification, students
·		·
2 7		are still responsible to go into Web Advisor and withdraw themselves from the class, in order not to receive an F. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in		l · failure.		ranure.
Class attendance policies		Class attendance policies

All work is due on the date specified on the syllabus or assignment sheet. If you are absent from class on the due date, late papers will be accepted without penalty only if the absence is excused. Likewise, missed quizzes, tests, and in-class assignments may be made up only if the absence is excused or due to an emergency. Excused absences require written medical, legal, or athletic documentation.

In the event that you do miss class, you are responsible for checking with your classmates to determine what concepts, issues and material I discussed during your absence. Please note that a significant proportion of the course content will only be available in class lectures, presentation and discussions, and that your knowledge of this material will be assessed throughout the semester.

Primary requirements and grade distribution

- Two 1000 word formal essays
- One 2000 word formal essay
- Weekly one to two page journal entries
- Timely completion of reading assignments and exercises
- Active participation in class discussions and activities
- One midterm in-class essay
- One mid-semester writing conference
- One final exam in-class essay
- Work group presentations

I will use this point distribution to calculate your grade:

100 points
100 points
200 points
120 points
40 points
80 points
80 points
80 points
800 points

Week 1	Due Date	Reading Assignment (to be completed ahead of time, before the date listed)
6/23
6/24
6/25		O to A: "The Dilemma of Obedience"; "Method of Inquiry"; "Expected Behavior"
6/26		O to A: "Closeness of the Victim"; "Individuals Confront Authority"; "Further Variations of Controls."
Week 2
6/30		O to A: "Individuals Confront Authority II"; "Role Permutations"; "Group Effects."
7/1	Journal	O to A: "Why Obedience?—An Analysis"; "The Process of Obedience: Applying the
	#1 due	Analysis to the Experiment"; "Strain and Disobedience."
7/2		O to A: "An Alternative Theory: Is Aggression the Key"; "Problems of Method";
		"Epilogue."
7/3		O to A: "Appendix I"; "Appendix II."
Week 3
7/7	Essay #1

	due
7/8		SPG&E: "Introduction and Overview."
7/9		SPG&E: "A Situationist Perspective on the Psychology of Evil."
7/10	Journal	SPG&E: "Basic Human Needs, Altruism, Aggression."
	#2 due
Week 4
7/14		SPG&E: "Four Roots of Evil."
7/15		SPG&E: "The Evolution of Evil."
7/16		SPG&E: "What's in a Category?"
7/17	Journal	SPG&E: "Contemporary Racial Bias."
	#3 due
Week 5
7/21	Midterm	SPG&E: "Violent Evil and the General Aggression Model."
7/22		SPG&E: "What Can the Milgram Experiment Tell Us about the Holocaust?"
7/23		SPG&E: "Conceptualizing Sexual Violence."
7/24	Journal	SPG&E: "The Pursuit of Self-Esteem."
	#4 due
Week 6
7/28	Essay #2	SPG&E: "The Many Faces of Lies."
	due
7/29		SPG&E: "A Moral-Emotional Perspective on Evil Persons and Evil Deeds."
7/30		SPG&E: "Benefits and Liabilities of Empathy-Induced Altruism."
7/31	Journal	SPG&E: "Empathy-Related Responding."
	#5 due
Week 7
8/4		SPG&E: "Social Support and Behavior Toward Others."
8/5		SPG&E: "Reducing Hostility and Building Compassion."
8/6		HF: "Introduction"; "The Lost Generation of German Women."
8/7	Journal	HF: "The East Needs You."
 1.0	#6 due
Week 8	F #2	VIE (IV)
8/11	Essay #3	HF: "Witnesses"; "Accomplices"; "Perpetrators."
0/10	Due	WE WAY DITTE WITON
8/12		HF: "Why Did They Kill?"
8/13	Tr: 1	HF: "What Happened To Them?"
8/14	Final
	Exam	