English Department Attendance Policy

Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they are enrolled. For example, if a class meets twice a week, students should not exceed 4 absences for the semester. If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After that notification, students are still responsible to go into Web Advisor and withdraw themselves from the class, in order not to receive an F. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in failure.

Required Texts

Behrens, Laurence, and Leonard J. Rosen. Writing and Reading across the Curriculum. Twelfth Edition. Boston: Pearson-Longman, 2013.
Lunsford, Andrea. The St. Martin's Handbook. Seventh Edition. Boston: Bedford-St.

Martin's, 2011.

Course Overview

The persuasive, documented essay is the focus of this course. Students will read critically and learn to write and document quotations, paraphrases, and summaries. Throughout the term, students will read passages in Writing and Reading across the Curriculum and study academic conventions in the St. Martin's Handbook, becoming familiar with Modern Language Association (MLA) parenthetical documentation format. During weeks fifteen and sixteen students will concentrate on final portfolio preparation. Students should save all written work during the semester.

The weekly structure described below is for general planning purposes and will be adjusted as needed. Daily readings, written exercises, and quizzes will be scheduled on a day-by-day and week-by-week basis. Class attendance is vital for information about deadlines and class activities. Even though class meetings are Tuesdays and Thursdays, some deadlines may fall on Fridays.

Weeks one through three students will focus on understanding summary and synthesis writing as academic discourse. Reading will mostly be in the Writing and Reading across the Curriculum text (WRAC), pages 3-23 and 289-336, the chapter titled, "The Changing Landscape of Work in the Twenty-First Century." Students will establish turnitin.com accounts, and begin studying MLA format in the St. Martin's Handbook, pages 308-358. Other supplemental readings in the WRAC and Handbook texts will also be required.

Weeks four through six students will complete a documented synthesis, building a document from planning and drafting through revision and editing.

Week seven students will launch a research essay assignment.

Weeks eight through twelve students will read the "Green Power" chapter in the WRAC text, pages 478-543, and complete a second, full-length synthesis. In addition students will make incremental progress on developing a research essay, including formal bibliography. Additional readings and subsequent study in the WRAC and Handbook texts will be required.

Special Note: Spring Break is falls between weeks eight and nine. As a result, class will not meet March 17 and March 19.

Weeks thirteen through fifteen students will complete a research essay and begin a final portfolio.

Week sixteen students will complete a final portfolio.

Expectations

1. Students should attend class regularly, participating in discussion, asking questions, and cooperating with class members in an effort to maturely and intelligently discuss the material.

2. Students must behave respectfully toward the subject matter, each other, and the instructor.

3. Students should attend at least one office meeting during the first three weeks of the semester.

Requirements

- 1. Hand in all assignments on time, unless prior arrangements are made.
- 2. Submit all final papers to turnitin.com and in hard copy.
- 3. Keyboard all essay assignments on a word processor.
- 4. Complete a research paper and a portfolio.

Manuscript Format

Use Times New Roman font, size 12, double-spaced, .5 inch indentation for paragraphs (no extra spacing between paragraphs), 1 inch margins all around, with page numbers preceded by your last name at top right, all pages stapled. Your name, instructor's name, class, assignment label, date, and word count should be double-spaced and aligned left at top of first page; title is centered. In general, follow MLA format. See page 350 in Handbook.
