Course Description
A course in the development of college-level reading, writing, and critical thinking skills, emphasizing basic argumentation. Students analyze ideas and structure in assigned readings and compose essays supporting arguable thesis statements. The lab component of the course is scheduled in the Writing Center, where students receive individualized instruction in critical reading, in the conventions of standard written English, and in all stages of the writing process.
Student Learning Outcomes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Develop an effective, thesis-driven argument appropriate to an academic audience. •Critically read and respond to argumentative texts. •In a multi-stage process, incorporate feedback (from instructors and peers) in essay planning and drafts. •Apply basic grammar and punctuation rules, particularly those that address sentence boundaries.
Special Accommodations
College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS at 707-476-4280.
Academic Support
Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.
Academic Honesty
In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services>, and scroll to AP 5500. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services> and scroll to AP 5500.

Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Emergency Procedures for the Eureka campus:

Please review the campus evacuation sites, including the closest site to this classroom (posted by the exit of each room). The Eureka campus emergency map is available at: (<http://www.redwoods.edu/aboutcr/Eureka-Map>; choose the evacuation map option). For more information on Public Safety, go to <http://www.redwoods.edu/publicsafety>. In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building.
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building:
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel.
- Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the Incident Commander or campus authorities. (CR's lower parking lot and Tompkins Hill Rd are within the Tsunami Zone.)

RAVE – College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system. In the event of an emergency on campus you can receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones at your home, office, and cell. Registration is necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Please go to <https://www.GetRave.com/login/Redwoods> and use the “Register” button on the top right portion of the registration page to create an account. During the registration process you can elect to add additional information, such as office phone, home phone, cell phone, and personal email. Please use your CR email address as your primary Registration Email. Your CR email address ends with “redwoods.edu.” Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions.

College of the Redwoods is committed to equal opportunity in employment, admission to the college, and in the conduct of all of its programs and activities.

ESSENTIAL ENGLISH 150 COURSE INFORMATION: Fall 2016

HOW TO REACH YOUR INSTRUCTOR

EMAIL: Susan-Nordlof@redwoods.edu (You can also email through the class Canvas site.)

OFFICE HOURS: Creative Arts 121
TTH 9:45-11:15 & by appointment.

If you drop by at other times, please do not assume that I will be there or that I will be able to meet with you (since I may be preparing for class or running off to another class or to a meeting)

OFFICE PHONE/ VOICE-MAIL: (707) 476-4336

WRITING CENTER HOURS: LRC 102

Day/Time: MW 8:30-9:55, W 2:50-4:15

Writing Center Phone: 476-4100 x4686

DIRECTIONS FOR SUBMITTING PAPERS OUTSIDE OF CLASS

•There are two places where you may leave assignments for me outside of the classroom: the instructor drop box in the CREATIVE ARTS building (across the hall from CA 124) OR the basket hanging on my office door (CA 121). The drop box is more secure.

•If you submit any work outside of class, you MUST ALSO send the same assignment to me attached to an email which informs me that you have left a printed copy in the dropbox or the basket. If an assignment has not been turned in during class, you must provide me with BOTH the printed and the digital copy. In most cases, the date and time of the emailed copy will determine the date/time the work has been submitted.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS

- REGULAR ACCESS TO A COMPUTER AND A PRINTER (INCLUDING THE MONEY AND/OR SUPPLIES FOR PRINTING).

Students in this class must be willing and able to register with and to use/access the following regularly, beginning the second week of classes:

CANVAS: 150 Course Website (by the beginning of Week 2)

Class-related email (via your CR email account) (by the beginning of Week 2)

Turnitin.com (an anti-plagiarism data base on the internet) (beginning the 5th or 6th week of classes)

Many of the course readings and most other course materials will be available on the website only. Students must print readings and materials and bring them to class.

BUDGET FOR PRINTING NOW AS PART OF YOUR TEXTBOOK EXPENSES.

It is essential that you are able to do this printing throughout the semester. Neither computer problems nor a lack of spare money for printing will be an acceptable excuse for not having read materials due and brought hard copies to class.

If you will be printing from home, you may want to invest now in enough ink and paper to get you through the term. If you will be printing at CR, I advise you to set aside at least $30 for printing at 10 cents a page.

I WILL HOLD STUDENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY INFORMATION I SEND TO THE CLASS VIA EMAIL.

Check your CR EMAIL often— at least once a day M-Th is a good idea (and I do the same).

- BOOKS

Between the World & Me*, Ta-Nehisi Coates

Careful academic reading requires that you annotate (write, underline, take notes) in your book. Do not rent your textbook if doing so will compromise your success in the class by making you reluctant to write in the book.

Practical Mechanics* (text + exercise packet), Susan Nordlof

These materials constitute the grammar materials for the course. The first reading assignment in the text is due the first week of class. The exercise packet is delayed in getting to the Bookstore, so I will provide you with print-outs of the exercises until the packets arrive.

- OTHER MATERIALS

➤ THREE letter-size file folders for keeping essay materials together.

Do not try to reuse the same folder for all essays: you will need three of them.

➤ A stapler or regular access to one. Your essays must have stapled pages, and I do not have a stapler in the classroom. There is a stapler for student use in the Writing Center.

➤ RECOMMENDED: Two 3-ring binders—one for Practical Mechanics (+ Exercises) and the other for handouts, assignments, and readings that you print from Canvas or receive in class. Some dividers to help you organize are also a good idea.

COURSE WORK & GRADING

- 3 FORMAL ESSAYS (minimum 850 wds. each). 24% of final grade.
Students will receive specific instructions for the essays. At least two drafts (showing significant revision), and Writing Center tutorials are REQUIRED for each paper. Essays which have not been thoroughly revised after consultation with a Writing Center instructor or tutor will not be graded.
- WRITING PROCESS: 6% of final grade.
Prewriting assignments for each paper. To receive credit, these must be completed ON TIME.
- SUMMATIVE ESSAY: 20% of final grade.
In the last week of classes, students will submit one of their revised formal essays to represent the best of their work in ENGL 150. The score on this essay will count as one-fifth of the grade in the course.
- READING: 20% of final grade.
Quizzes, class participation & discussion, pre- and post-reading assignments/in-class writes. Students who have not completed the reading will not be able to participate in discussions or other activities, including quizzes and other reading-related assignments, and they will lose the opportunity to receive credit for these assessments.
- GRAMMAR: 15% of final grade.
Readings and exercises in Practical Mechanics, 6 quizzes, & 3 mechanical corrections assignments (based on your essays).
- WRITING SAMPLE: 5% of final grade.
The Writing Sample is an informal writing assignment due on the second day of classes. Please keep in mind that students who do not turn it in may be dropped from the class by week 3 for non-participation.
- WRITING CENTER: 10% of final grade.
Pass/Fail criteria: A total of 22.5 hours a semester; at least 3 verified Writing Center tutorials/conferences.

- For a more specific grade breakdown for each assignment in the class, see the handout “WHAT IS MY GRADE IN ENGLISH 150?”
You should be referring to this handout regularly and using it to keep track of your grade each week.
- Work which is not turned in will receive zero credit and an F grade. In most cases, work turned in late will also receive zero credit—see the Late Work policy below for more information
- For greater precision, I use plus (+) and minus (-) grades in this course when evaluating tests and assignments and when calculating final grades.
- EXTRA CREDIT: The CR English department has a NO EXTRA CREDIT policy.
Students who wish to insure a passing grade or better should be attentive and diligent in completing the required course work on time, should attend class regularly and participate fully, and should make the best use of opportunities to seek expert feedback and revise their essays thoroughly (via the Writing Center and/or instructor office hours).

WITH A FINAL GRADE OF C (70%) OR HIGHER IN ENGLISH 150,
YOU WILL BE ELIGIBLE FOR ENGLISH 1A.

- COURSE REPEATABILITY

The state of California LIMITS HOW OFTEN A STUDENT MAY ATTEMPT TO TAKE A COURSE. “ATTEMPTS” INCLUDE EARNING A “D” OR “F” GRADE AS WELL AS DROPPING THE CLASS WITH A “W”(generally, dropping AFTER WEEK 2 of the semester—in Fall 2016 dropping after 09/09/16). All past attempts to take the course (non-passing grades or W’s back to 1985) WILL BE counted.

Students will have only THREE TRIES (initial registration and two repeated registrations) to successfully complete a class. After two attempts, financial aid to retake the class may be affected. For more information, see your academic counselor or advisor.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU: Students need to commit themselves from the beginning of the semester to the considerable work load required to pass ENGL 150 OR drop the course no later than 9/9/16. If you have registered for this course or ENGL 102 before and either not passed or withdrawn, it is especially important that you understand these regulations (ENGL 102 and ENGL 150 attempts are added together and may not exceed three tries). If you have enrolled in the class, but your life is especially complicated with a heavy course load, a heavy work load, demanding family responsibilities, and/or demanding extra-curricular activities (like being a student athlete), then you should think carefully about how you will manage the stress and the time-management NOW.

ATTENDANCE & INSTRUCTOR DROPS

- INSTRUCTORS MAY DROP STUDENTS UP TO 11/4/16 FOR POOR ATTENDANCE AND/OR NON-PARTICIPATION (ASSIGNMENTS NOT TURNED IN).

IN ENGL 150, YOU WILL BE DROPPED FROM THE CLASS IN THE FOLLOWING CIRCUMSTANCES:

- IF, BY 9/9/16, YOU HAVE HAD 2 OR MORE UNEXCUSED ABSENCES AND/OR HAVE NOT TURNED IN THE WRITING SAMPLE AND HAVE NOT COMPLETED ANY READINGS ASSIGNED (AS INDICATED BY NON-PARTICIPATION AND VERY LOW QUIZ SCORES).
- IF YOU HAVE 5 UNEXCUSED ABSENCES BEFORE 11/4/16.
- IF, BEFORE 11/4/16, YOU HAVE SHOWN A PATTERN OF NON-PARTICIPATION IN THE CLASS—NOT COMPLETING PLANNING FOR ESSAYS, NOT TURNING IN ESSAY(S), AND NOT COMPLETING MULTIPLE READING ASSIGNMENTS.

If you think I have dropped you in error, please talk to me about reinstating you in the class.

Since regular attendance is a critical factor in student success, students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they are enrolled. In general, absences may be considered excessive when the number of absences exceeds the total number of hours that the class meets during one week (3 hours or two classes). The Attendance Policy for this class specifies that students may not miss more than two weeks of class (4 absences or 6 hours). If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in failure.

WHAT COUNTS AS AN UNEXCUSED ABSENCE?

- IF YOU ARE NOT IN CLASS AND DO NOT HAVE A DOCUMENTED MEDICAL OR LEGAL EXCUSE, THAT WILL COUNT AS ONE UNEXCUSED ABSENCE.
- ARRIVING LATE OR LEAVING EARLY WILL COUNT AS A HALF AN ABSENCE. Students are considered late if they are not present when I take attendance at the beginning of class. (Plus quizzes are given at the beginning of class.)

If you are late, you must talk with me after class to insure that I have marked you tardy rather than absent.

WHAT COUNTS AS AN EXCUSED ABSENCE?

- TO BE COUNTED AS AN EXCUSED ABSENCE, YOU MUST PRODUCE MEDICAL OR LEGAL DOCUMENTATION CLEARLY STATING THAT YOU WERE TOO ILL TO ATTEND CLASS, YOU HAD A MEDICAL APPOINTMENT THAT CONFLICTED WITH CLASS, OR YOU WERE SUMMONED TO APPEAR IN COURT AT THE DAY/TIME OF CLASS.

Students who are parents may receive excused absences if they show medical documentation for their children's illnesses or appointments.

I understand that many of you cannot afford to see a doctor for a cold or the flu. If you need an excused absence because of ailments like these, please see the CR Nurse.

CR Health Center: PE Building 114 707-476-4149

Mon: 9am to 1pm; Tues/Thurs: 1pm to 5pm; Wed: 8:30am to 4:30pm; Fri: 1pm to 5pm.

Schedule physical exams in person; all other services on a walk-in basis.

DO NOT COME TO CLASS IF YOU ARE SICK!

Medical documentation from the Health Center will be adequate to excuse an absence or provide a due date extension.

OTHER CLASS POLICIES THAT STUDENTS SHOULD KNOW

MORE ON ACADEMIC HONESTY:

- PLAGIARISM: No essay which contains plagiarism--no matter how small an amount or how unintentional--will be graded, and students who are guilty of blatant plagiarism will be referred to campus authorities for disciplinary action. See additional references to plagiarism and to inappropriate internet sources on the essay guidelines.

STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR UPLOADING ALL FINAL DRAFTS TO TURNITIN.COM, A SUBSCRIPTION DATABASE THAT CHECKS PAPERS FOR PLAGIARISM. (This is a CR English Department policy for all courses at the 150 level and higher.)

ESSAYS WILL NOT BE GRADED UNLESS IT HAS BEEN SCANNED BY THIS PROGRAM, AND I HAVE RECEIVED THE RESULTS.

I DO check Turnitin, and I DO enforce this policy.

- FORGERY ON CONFERENCE RECORD SHEETS:
If a student forges the signature or initials of a Writing Center instructor or tutor on a conference record sheet and/or changes the date/time on the conference sheet, he or she will receive a zero on the paper in question and will be referred to campus authorities for disciplinary action.
- MISREPRESENTING SCORES ON GRAMMAR EXERCISES:
If a student misrepresents Practical Mechanics exercise scores (records scores that do not accurately reflect his or her work), I will consider this academic dishonesty. The first time, I will simply grade the exercise set with zero points. If the problem occurs repeatedly, I will refer the student to campus discipline for academic dishonesty. By "misrepresenting scores," I mean entering scores for work that was not completed and/or entering different scores than were actually earned.

MAKE-UP QUIZZES:

- Reading quizzes cannot be made up.
- Grammar quizzes can be made up in the Testing Center in the ASC within one week of the quiz being given in class. Makeups are for students who are absent only—not for students who have not studied or who have performed poorly on the quiz.
Students who want a make-up must make arrangements with me—it is their responsibility to request the make-up.

LATE WORK:

- LATE COUPONS
By the third week of the semester, each student will receive two coupons, each good for one late assignment without penalty. One will allow you to turn in a reading question assignment up to one week late without penalty; and one will allow you to turn in a second or (optional) third draft one week late without penalty. The coupon must be stapled to the late work when it is turned in. Late papers—even those excused with a coupon—will be returned (graded) later than papers which were turned in on time.

Late coupons cannot be used for Introduction Planning Sheets, Essay Planning Sheets, First Drafts of essays, the Writing Sample, or the Summative Essay.

- LATE PENALTY

HOMEWORK READING QUESTIONS will not be accepted late without the late coupon attached.

ESSAYS submitted late without a coupon (or later than one week with a coupon) will be lowered one full grade for each school day late, unless special arrangements have been made. (Example: if the due date was Monday, and you turn it in on Thursday, you will lose three grade points; if the due date was Thursday and you turn it in Monday, you will lose two grade points.)

POLICIES ON ASSIGNMENTS:

- REVISIONS ARE AN ESSENTIAL PART OF ENGL 150

TWO DRAFTS (the 2nd SUBSTANTIALLY revised) ARE REQUIRED FOR EACH FORMAL ESSAY.

Prewriting assignments must be approved by me (or by a Writing Center instructor) before a student proceeds with draft one. Although I will check that you have completed a first draft on the date it is due, I will not read it thoroughly (unless you meet with me in my office) or respond with written comments. Instead, you will plan your next revision with help from a teacher in the Writing Center or help from me during office hours. I will comment on second drafts and grade them. First drafts with proof of tutorial must be included with all second drafts submitted for a grade.

IF YOUR FIRST DRAFT IS LATE MORE THAN ONE TIME, YOUR ESSAY GRADE WILL BE PERMANENTLY REDUCED BY ONE GRADE POINT.

IF AN EARLY DRAFT HAS BEEN SKIPPED OR HAS NOT BEEN REVISED THOROUGHLY OR IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED WRITING CENTER FEEDBACK BEFORE REVISING, I WILL NOT ACCEPT THE LATER DRAFT FOR A GRADE.

By the time I have become aware of these problems, the deadline for the paper may have passed. NO SPECIAL EXTENSIONS WILL BE GIVEN IN THESE CASES

- OPTIONAL 3RD DRAFTS (REVISIONS TO RAISE YOUR GRADE)

In an effort to improve your grade, you may revise each essay one additional time after receiving my comments and submit your revision for a possible grade increase.

These third draft are optional but are highly recommended for students who are not receiving passing grades on second drafts and for those who wish to excel in the course. Due dates for optional third drafts will appear in the syllabus and on the assignment for each formal essay. Third drafts MUST follow an assigned procedure, including an additional Writing Center conference and Turnitin .com submission, which you will learn about in class.

- INSTRUCTOR COMMENTS & GRADES

Generally, students will receive their 2nd drafts back graded two weeks after turning in papers.

Essays which do not comply with the guidelines on the handout FORMAT FOR SECOND (AND THIRD) DRAFTS or essays which have not been uploaded to Turnitin.com will not be graded, nor will they receive extensions on any subsequent revisions.

Grammar quizzes will be returned as soon as possible, in advance of the next related quiz. Some work—in particular reading quizzes, in-class writes, and reading questions—will be reviewed in class and turned in only for the grades to be recorded— not for instructor comments.

In addition, I do NOT use the Canvas online gradebook, but I will provide you with materials for tracking and figuring your own grades.

If you want to know the grade-to-date that I have for you in my gradebook, send me an email request.

- ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT IN CLASS

I HAVE A NO-TOLERANCE POLICY ABOUT TEXTING AND USING UNAUTHORIZED ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN CLASS.

If you do so, I will stop whatever we are doing and tell you to leave the classroom. PUT YOUR PHONE &/or MP3 PLAYER AWAY before class starts, and turn off cell phones before entering the class and the Writing Center.

Texting or other inappropriate electronic activities during class will not only result in your being temporarily suspended from class IMMEDIATELY (that is, kicked out), but you may also be referred to campus disciplinary authorities. CONSIDER THIS HANDOUT YOUR FIRST WARNING!

If you think you need to use an e-reader, tablet, or laptop in class, please meet with me to discuss appropriate guidelines.

APPROPRIATE CLASSROOM CONDUCT

Generally, ENGL 150 students fully grasp and abide by the standards of appropriate behavior for college students, so classroom conduct does not become a problem. However, to avoid embarrassment or misunderstanding, students should be aware that the following behaviors are NOT ACCEPTABLE in class:

- Using cell phones in class or using e-readers, tablets, or laptops for anything that is not directly related to our course work. See the policy above on ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT IN CLASS, and note in particular that texting will get you kicked out of class.

- Side conversations between students while class is in session. Even if you are talking about class work, side conversations are discourteous to the instructor and to other students who are participating in class discussions or who are trying to listen. (Of course, paired or group activities are sometime part of the class activities, and lively general discussion is essential!)

- Sleeping, resting with head on desk and/or with closed eyes, sitting with hat or hoodie covering eyes. If you are too tired or too bored to stay awake in class, then you should not be there. Please be warned that if you are sitting with your eyes covered or closed, I will interrupt the class and tell you to wake up or leave the classroom.

- Interrupting the class by entering late, leaving early, or coming and going from the classroom while the class is in session. Take care of personal needs before entering the classroom. If you walk out of the classroom repeatedly (before class is over) or wander in and out repeatedly, you will be warned and ultimately suspended from the class and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Again, such repeated behavior is disruptive and discourteous to the instructor and to the other students. (Of course, occasionally emergencies occur which makes such interruptions unavoidable. In these cases, please try to be as unobtrusive as possible.)

- Engaging your instructor in a dispute about a course policy and/or grade while class is in session. The best time to discuss a policy and/or grade is during your instructor's office hours. If your instructor does not have office hours that you can attend, then ask for an appointment, perhaps before or after class or at another time that works for both of you.

Keep in mind that it is not unusual to feel stressed by course work or policies and/or to feel badly about a grade. It is best, however, to wait until you are calm to discuss in person or by email such matters with your instructor. Your strong emotions will not excuse inappropriate behavior or tone, including anger, rudeness, or blame (not only in face-to-face communications but also in emails).

A SPECIAL NOTE ABOUT COMPLEX, ADULT SUBJECTS IN READINGS AND DISCUSSIONS

In this class, we will be reading about, discussing, and writing about subjects such as poverty and socioeconomic class, gender issues (including the sexualization of women in public and social media, sexual assault on campuses, etc), race and racism. These are important, controversial subjects that will require us to be mutually respectful of one another, to cultivate empathy, to speak and write honestly but carefully and appropriately for an academic environment.

The readings about gender, in particular, sometimes refer to sexual behavior (for example, in a frank description of a Miley Cyrus video and concert) and include profanity in quoting interview subjects' own language. I will give you a heads-up about these passages, so you can skim any parts that offend you, but if considering these issues seriously is apt to be upsetting to you or will pose too great of a challenge to your maturity, you may want to consider whether this section of ENGL 150 is a good fit for you

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE NEXT CLASS MEETING (Wed. Aug. 31)

- DUE: WRITING SAMPLE.

Write a minimum of one-and-a-half typed pages telling me why you are attending CR, what you are hoping to gain from your higher (post-secondary) education, and how you see this class (on academic reading, writing, and critical thinking) fitting into your education/career goals. Staple pages together.

At the top left of the first page provide an ID block/heading:

- DUE: Practical Mechanics (text, not exercises): Read: Introduction 1-9
- Before class, review carefully the Course Information handout (this handout). Be prepared to ask questions about anything you would like clarified. The class schedule part of the syllabus will be passed out on the second day of class.

On Wed., we will meet in the classroom, but after a little while, we will go to the Writing Center (LRC 102) for our Writing Center orientation. During this time, you will also schedule your regular time to attend the Writing Center (which will open next week).

CLASS SCHEDULE

- Assignments are due ON THE DAY THAT THEY APPEAR ON THE SYLLABUS. For all reading assignments, be prepared for a quiz, an in-class writing, a group activity, and/or homework reading questions. Bring the reading and/or book to class on the days when the reading is due.
- Readings, handouts, and assignments from the Canvas Website must be printed out and brought to class. (Print-outs of essay assignments will be provided in class.)
- All of your work should be collected in your notebook and brought to every class meeting. In addition to materials printed from the course Canvas site, your notebook should contain work-in-progress, assignments to turn in, and handouts I have passed out. You should keep this paperwork, as well as assignments that have been returned to you and prewriting/drafts of formal essays, until the class is over.
- During the first four weeks of the semester, please bring Practical Mechanics with you to class every day. After that, bring it on days when we are likely to discuss grammar and punctuation (usually on Wednesday).
- In-class exercises and activities may not be listed, though they often will be announced in advance.
- ABBREVIATIONS: PM=Practical Mechanics, Canvas: Posted on course website
