Catalog Description

English 1A is a transfer-level course in critical reading and reasoned writing. Students analyze issues and claims presented in visual, oral, or written arguments and write analytical and argumentative essays based on those issues. Research and source-based writing, employing correct MLA documentation, is required.

Prerequisite: Passing English 150 with a C grade or better, or assessment recommendation for English 1A. Note: Familiarity and facility with computers and their programs (CR Gmail and Canvas/Microsoft Word/Power Point) is highly recommended!!

Required Texts

Hacker, Diana, and Nancy Sommers. A Pocket Style Manual & LaunchPad Solo for A Pocket Style Manual, 7th ed. Boston: Bedford/St.Martin's, 2014.

Behrens, Laurence and Rosen, Leonard J. Writing and Reading Across the Curriculum, 13th Ed. Boston: Pearson, 2016.

Manuscript Format

Use Times New Roman font, size 12, double-spaced, .5 inch indentation for paragraphs (no extra spacing between paragraphs), 1 inch margins all around, with page numbers preceded by your last name at top right, all pages stapled. Your name, instructor's name, class, assignment label, date, and word count should be double-spaced and aligned left at top of first page; title is centered.

Course Requirements

Essay Writing: three out-of-class, formal essays of 1000-2000 words. (Note: these essays will advance in point value from 50-100-200.) Each essay must include a pre-write and at least two drafts (Rough/Final). Please save all work that goes into your papers! In addition, we will have at least two scored timed essays using the University of California Subject A Format before the final written exam. These will also advance in value, the last being worth twice the first.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Analyze argumentative claims.
2. Respond to arguments with persuasive critical essays.
3. Locate, synthesize, and document sources for use in response to arguments.
4. Revise and edit for sentence structure and mechanics.

Expectations

1. You should attend class regularly, asking questions, participating in discussion, and demonstrating cooperation with class members in an effort to maturely and intelligently discuss the material. (See "Notes" section below for further information).

2. You should attend at least one office conference, preferably during the first six weeks of the semester.
3. If you miss or are unable to attend class, it is your responsibility to contact me about your absence. I have many students, and my attention will always go first to those who are in class.

Assignment Requirements

1. You must hand in all assignments on time unless you make prior arrangements.
2. You must submit all out-of-class papers to course assignment link on Canvas.
3. You must keyboard all out-of-class essay assignments.
4. You must successfully complete all assigned essays (including in-class essays), a culminating paper, and a portfolio.

Office Hours

I will be available in Tuesdays and Thursday from 5:00-5:30pm. I have no Writing Lab shifts this semester, but since I have other academic obligations during various times of the semester, I highly recommend scheduling an appointment to see me if possible.

Grades

English 1A is graded A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, D, F. If you successfully meet all course requirements, your final grade will be calculated as follows:

Class preparation and participation.....	15%
Quizzes/Grammar Work.....	15%
Essays .....	30%
Portfolio.....	20%
Research Paper.....	20%

Notes

1. If you have a disability, you are invited to meet with me to identify any special needs that you may have in English 1B. Please communicate your needs during the first week of the semester.
2. You are responsible for all of your own work. While I encourage collaborative study groups and tutoring, any plagiarism, cheating, or disruptive behavior will result in immediate referral to the Campus Dean and the “Student Code of Conduct Standards.”
3. Cell phones and other personal communication devices are not part of English 1B. Do not bring them to class unless they are turned off or set on the vibrate mode. If you use your cell phone in class, you will be marked absent for the day and lose credit for attending that class. Refer to our class attendance policy to understand the consequences of cell phone use.
4. Laptops and tablets should not be open or powered on during class discussions, but can be used when the instructor allows.
5. This syllabus is subject to change should circumstances warrant revision.

Course Calendar and Assignment Schedule

The following information is to be used as a guide for the work you will be expected to do each week. The BOLD type is your guide for when your major writing assignments and essays will be assigned, then due as rough and final drafts, and finally returned. The assigned work listed for each date is your homework. This is the work you should have done by the NEXT class session (ex. All the work listed on Aug. 27th needs to be completed by the time class begins on Aug. 29th). Please note that although some of the dates will inevitably change, the sequence of the work most likely will not. This outline can also be found in the Syllabus Section of this class' Canvas website, so use it as your primary reference to determine where the course is heading and the work you need to do.
