Syllabus for English 1A: Analytical Reading & Writing – Eureka CampusAcademic Support

Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.

Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services>, and scroll to AP 5500. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services> and scroll to AP 5500. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Syllabus for English 1A: Analytical Reading & Writing – Eureka CampusEmergency Procedures for the Eureka campus:

Please review the campus evacuation sites, including the closest site to this classroom (posted by the exit of each room). Course Overview:

- Course Description: English 1A is a transfer-level course in critical reading and reasoned writing. Students analyze issues and claims presented in visual, oral, or written arguments and write analytical and argumentative essays based on those issues. Research and source-based writing, employing correct MLA documentation, is required; minimum 6,000 words formal writing.
- Prerequisite: English 150 or English 102 (or equivalent) with grade of “C” or better or appropriate reading and writing scores on the placement exam.
- Student Learning Outcomes
Students successfully completing this course will be able to:
 - Analyze argumentative claims.
 - Respond to arguments with persuasive critical essays.
 - Locate, synthesize, and document sources for use in response to arguments.

- Course Description/Goals: Welcome to English 1A! This course will require much time and effort from you; yet it offers much in return. English 1A is a rigorous, comprehensive course designed to increase your critical thinking, reading, and writing skills. You'll be doing an extensive amount of reading, writing, and discussing for this class. The potential benefits, though, are worth your efforts. Engaging in activities such as reading and analyzing complex texts, developing extended written analytical arguments—as well as participating in intellectual class discussions and peer group activities—sharpens the critical thinking skills that will serve you well both in college and in your life beyond the classroom.

Over the course of the semester, you will learn different strategies to help you engage in intellectual conversations (both oral and written discourses). Upon successful completion of this course, you will have a deeper understanding of how to use language effectively in different situations and for different audiences and purposes. Additionally, you will have learned something of how place, language, and culture interact to shape our understanding of ourselves and the world we inhabit.

English 1A is primarily a workshop course. In this class, we will endeavor to create a supportive community environment. In whole class and small group settings, we will work together to develop the abilities to give appropriate, productive feedback, present ideas in a well-thought-out manner, and listen and respond to the ideas of others with interest and respect. In developing these abilities, you will be sharpening your critical thinking skills as well.

Course Requirements:

- ❖ Major Papers: You will write three major essays (each ranging from 1400 to 2000 words). MLA formatting and documentation are required for all essays. At least two of these papers will require research in the library and on the internet. All essays are to be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced. I accept hard copies only. You may e-mail me a copy of an assignment if you're absent on the day it's due (to show you've completed it), but you will not receive credit for it until you've turned in a hard copy version when you come back to class. (See Deadline & Make-up Policy section for more details.)

You will need to maintain a working portfolio (in a pocket folder) for each major essay. The working portfolio is comprised of all writing pertaining to this paper, including a final, polished draft, all notes, prewriting, earlier drafts, peer feedback, conference notes, and so forth. In other words, save everything. In order to receive full credit for a major essay, you must submit it on the due date in a working portfolio containing all the required documents. Note: I do not accept essays without a working portfolio.

- ❖ www.turnitin.com: In addition to the stapled, hard copies of each of your essays that you submit, you will also submit electronically each of your essays to www.turnitin.com via Canvas. (If you're unsure about how to perform this activity, don't worry; we will be discussing in class how to submit essays when the time is appropriate.) At the end of the semester, the recorded grades for any essays that have not been submitted to turnitin.com will be deleted from the gradebook and you will receive a "zero" for the essay.

- ❖ Course Readings & Responses: You will be assigned many readings over the course of the semester. You can expect upwards of 50 pages of readings per week. All readings must be completed on the date due. Skimming readings will not be sufficient for English 1A. We will work together to develop your ability to engage in “active” reading, but you must do your part. You will need to read and annotate the assigned texts, making note of the ideas presented and questioning and testing these ideas against your own.

You will need to complete all assigned readings in order to: 1) actively participate in class discussions, and 2) write meaningful responses to the texts. You will be writing a number of responses to readings. These responses will take a variety of forms, including daily quick writes (QWs), out-of-class reading responses (RRs), and formal in-class writes.

These different writing assignments allow you to reflect on our readings, to formulate questions and ideas and connect these readings to your own experiences, knowledge bases, and/or a particular aspect of the world. They are also a means of developing and displaying your critical thinking and writing skills and, therefore, will require a certain amount of time and effort on your part. You can expect to spend, on average, 8 hours per week (outside class) in completing the reading and writing assignments for this 4 unit course.

Note: You have the option of developing a reading response or formal in-class write into a major essay. Keep this in mind as you read and write responses, and if you feel inspired to delve deeper into some idea, question, or issue, by all means, do so!

Additional note: A major portion of in-class writing will be in the form of quick writes (QWs). Only students who bring an annotated hard copy of the reading will be able to take that day’s quick write (QW). Note: readings accessed via smartphone or other electronic devices are not hard copies. A hard copy is a printed paper version of a reading (i.e. paper copy of a reading from Canvas).

- ❖ Grammar Review & Practice (as needed)
- ❖ Engaged Participation in Class Activities, Peer Groups Exercises, and Whole Class Discussions: (see Attendance & Participation section for more details)
- ❖ Regular Class Attendance: (see Attendance & Participation section for details)
- ❖ Formatting Assignments: All writing (other than in-class) must be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced, the pages formatted with one inch margins. Staple pages together.

- ❖ Deadline & Make-Up Policies: As a general rule, I do not accept late work. Any exception to this rule will be determined on a case-by-case basis. All assignments must be turned in on the date they are due to receive credit. As noted in other sections, though, if you are absent, you may email me a copy of your homework by our class starting time on the day it is due (followed by a hard copy turned in to me when you return to class) to receive credit.

Grading Policy:

- ❖ Attendance & Participation (30 points possible): English 1A is a workshop course. Both your presence and your engaged participation in class are vital not only for your individual success but for the success of the class as a whole. The attendance points I assign you (following every class meeting) will be based just as much on your preparedness and participation as your presence in that day's session. For specific attendance requirements see attendance section below.
- ❖ 3 Major Essays Submitted with Prewriting and Earlier Drafts on Required Due Date (75+100+125 = 300 points possible): All drafts are to be included in the working folder. Each essay will have been read and responded to in (at least) one peer group session (all peer responses are to be included in the working portfolio).
- ❖ 2 Discovery Drafts (15 pts each = 30 pts possible)
- ❖ 2 Reading Responses (15 pts each = 30 pts possible)
- ❖ 3 Formal In-Class Writes (15 pts each = 45 pts possible)
- ❖ In-Class & Online Writing, Quizzes, Homework Assignments, & Group Presentations (65 points possible): There will be many opportunities to accumulate points through activities such as informal in-class writing (quick writes (QWs), freewrites, pre-reading questions, etc.), quizzes, group activities, and homework assignments. In addition, you may be participating in one (or more) small group presentations (time permitting).

Note concerning quick writes: A major portion of in-class writing will be in the form of quick writes (QWs). Only students who bring an annotated hard copy of the reading will be able to take the day's quick write (QW). Note: readings accessed via smartphone or other electronic devices are not hard copies. A hard copy is a printed paper version of a reading (i.e. paper copy of a reading from Canvas).

- ❖ Extra Credit: The official CR policy stipulates that extra credit is NOT available in English 1A.
- ❖ Final Course Grade: There are a total of 500 points available for this course. Final grades will be based on the following scale: A (465-500), A- (450-464), B+ (435-449), B (415-434), B- (400-414), C+ (385-399), C (365-384), C- (350-364), D (300-349).

Attendance and Participation Policies:

Since much of this class revolves around our discussions, you will need to be in class every day, on time, and prepared to engage in the day's activities. Please note that I will be taking attendance (in one form or another) every class period. I will also be keeping track of individual participation in group discussions and activities. (Grades are influenced by the level of participation in class.) Being late to class also affects your grade.

It is imperative that you come to class on time and prepared to actively participate. Lateness, lack of preparation, and inattentiveness will not only affect your ability to succeed in this course, it will also have an effect on the functioning of the class as a whole. Please keep this in mind.

The English Department Attendance Policy:

Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they are enrolled. Students may not miss more than two weeks of class. For example, if a class meets twice a week, students should not exceed 4 absences for the semester. If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After that notification, students are still responsible to go into Web Advisor and withdraw themselves from the class, in order not to receive an F. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in failure.

So what does this mean for our class? Since this English 1A class meets (3) three times a week, students should not exceed (6) six absences for the semester.

Before Census (Week 3): Be aware that if you've missed multiple classes and/or have not been turning in work, your name may be cleared from the class roster following Friday of Week 3 (Census Week). If you find yourself in this boat, come and talk to me about your situation as soon as possible.

Academic Honesty Policy:

Plagiarism is a serious offence which can result in failing English 1A. We will be discussing in class about acceptable ways of including the words of others in your writing, but if you ever have any questions about whether or not you may be plagiarizing something in your writing, please come see me before you turn in your paper, so we can avoid any potential misunderstandings about what your intentions may have been.

Academic Misconduct: The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services> and scroll to AP 5500.

Outside Assistance for English 1A:

- ❖ Instructor Conferences: Studies show that students who meet often with their instructors are more successful in their classes. I encourage you to make an appointment with me to discuss any questions or concerns you may have at any stage of the writing process. You do not need to make an appointment for a conference during my office hours. Just drop in and I will be delighted to see you! However, if you would like a conference and cannot make it during my office hours, please speak with me (in person or via email) and we will arrange a mutually convenient time to meet.

- ❖ The Writing Center: All students can benefit from the feedback of interested readers of their writing. The CR Writing Center is staffed with trained, knowledgeable instructors and peer tutors who can help you with your essays or other writing projects. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, however, you need to enroll in English 53A (a half unit).

- ❖ The Academic Support Center: The Academic Support Center also offers tutoring service (free to students).

- ❖ Special Accommodations: Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations should contact Disability Services and Programs for Students. Some accommodations may take up to several weeks to arrange. Please see me as soon as possible if you would like help arranging accommodations. Your success in this class is my main consideration. I will be pleased to help in whatever way I can.

The instructor reserves the right to add, delete, or revise sections of this course or syllabus. Changes will be announced in class.
