Catalog Description

An English 1A learning community experience that offers students additional support and practice through collaborative and hands-on learning activities facilitated by the instructor of their English 1A class.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Demonstrate a reflexive understanding of specific course content, ideas, or processes within English that are challenging or confusing and identify methods to strengthen or address those challenging areas.
2. Decode and practice the skills and ways of thinking that lead to success in college reading and writing.
3. Decode and practice the skills and ways of thinking that lead to success within academic/discourse communities.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Students must earn a final grade of 70 percent in the co-requisite English 1A course to pass the lab. This lab is a pass/no pass lab. Passing this lab is contingent upon regular weekly attendance and engagement in activities designed to help students develop their work and assignments for English 1A.

The final course grade in English 1A includes all the required reading and writing assignments as well as your preparedness, engagement, in-class work, contributions to discussion, and collaboration. Weekly attendance in the lab is required to work on and help support assignments, reading, and writing assigned in English 1A.

Special Accommodations Statement

College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please see me or contact Disability Services and Programs for Students. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location: In Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor.
