Special accommodations statement

College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please see me or contact Disability Services and Programs for Students. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103 Academic Support Information

Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.

Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Emergency procedures / Everbridge

College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system called Everbridge. In the event of an emergency on campus you will receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones. Registration is not necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Check to make sure your contact information is up-to-date by logging into WebAdvisor <https://webadvisor.redwoods.edu> and selecting 'Students' then 'Academic Profile' then 'Current Information Update.'

Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions. For more information see the Redwoods Public Safety Page.

In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building anywhere in the District:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel

Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the campus authorities.

Course Overview:

- Course Description: This is an introductory course that offers instruction in expository and argumentative writing, close reading, cogent thinking, research strategies, information literacy, appropriate and effective use of language, and documentation.

- Student Learning Outcomes:
 - 1. Demonstrate the capacity to read, analyze and evaluate non-fiction texts in support of academic inquiry and argumentation.

 - 2. Utilize flexible strategies for writing expository and argumentative college-level essays.

 - 3. Incorporate primary and secondary sources into essays using appropriate documentation format.

- Course Description/Goals: Welcome to English 1A! This course will require much time and effort from you; yet it offers much in return. English 1A is a rigorous, comprehensive course designed to increase your critical thinking, reading, and writing skills. You'll be doing an extensive amount of reading, writing, and discussing for this class. The potential benefits, though, are worth your efforts. Engaging in activities such as reading and analyzing complex texts, developing extended written analytical arguments—as well as participating in intellectual class discussions and peer group activities—sharpens the critical thinking skills that will serve you well both in college and in your life beyond the classroom.

Over the course of the semester, you will learn different strategies to help you engage in intellectual conversations (both oral and written discourses). Upon successful completion of this course, you will have a deeper understanding of how to use language effectively in different situations and for different audiences and purposes. Additionally, you will have learned something of how place, language, and culture interact to shape our understanding of ourselves and the world we inhabit.

English 1A is primarily a workshop course. In this class, we will endeavor to create a supportive community environment. In whole class and small group settings, we will work together to develop the abilities to give appropriate, productive feedback, present ideas in a well-thought-out manner, and listen and respond to the ideas of others with interest and respect. In developing these abilities, you will be sharpening your critical thinking skills as well.

Course Requirements:

- ❖ Major Papers: You will write three major essays. MLA formatting and documentation are required for all essays. At least two of these papers will require research in the library and on the internet. All essays are to be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced. I accept hard copies only. You may e-mail me a copy of an assignment if you're absent on the day it's due (to show you've completed it), but you will not receive credit for it until you've turned in a hard copy version when you come back to class. (See Deadline & Make-up Policy section for more details.)

You will need to maintain a working portfolio (in a pocket folder) for each major essay. The working portfolio is comprised of all writing pertaining to this paper, including a final, polished draft, all notes, prewriting, earlier drafts, peer feedback, conference notes, and so forth. In other words, save everything. In order to receive full credit for a major essay, you must submit it on the due date in a working portfolio containing all the required documents. Note: I do not accept essays without a working portfolio.

- ❖ www.turnitin.com: In addition to the stapled, hard copies of each of your essays that you submit, you will also submit electronically each of your essays to www.turnitin.com via Canvas. (If you're unsure about how to perform this activity, don't worry; we will be discussing in class how to submit essays when the time is appropriate.) At the end of the semester, the recorded grades for any essays that have not been submitted to turnitin.com will be deleted from the gradebook and you will receive a "zero" for the essay.
- ❖ Course Readings & Responses: You will be assigned many readings over the course of the semester. You can expect upwards of 50 pages of readings per week. All readings must be completed on the date due. Skimming readings will not be sufficient for English 1A. We will work together to develop your ability to engage in "active" reading, but you must do your part. You will need to read and annotate the assigned texts, making note of the ideas presented and questioning and testing these ideas against your own.

You will need to complete all the assigned readings in order to: 1) actively participate in class discussions, and 2) write meaningful responses to the texts. You will be writing a number of responses to readings. These responses will take a variety of forms, including daily quick writes (QWs), out-of-class reading responses (RRs), and formal in-class writes.

These different writing assignments allow you to reflect on our readings, to formulate questions and ideas and connect these readings to your own experiences, knowledge bases, and/or a particular aspect of the world. They are also a means of developing and displaying your critical thinking and writing skills and, therefore, will require a certain amount of time and effort on your part. You can expect to spend, on average, 8 hours per week (outside class) in completing the reading and writing assignments for this 4 unit course.

Note: You have the option of developing a reading response or formal in-class write into a major essay. Keep this in mind as you read and write responses, and if you feel inspired to delve deeper into some idea, question, or issue, by all means, do so!

Additional note: A major portion of in-class writing will be in the form of quick writes (QWs). Only students who bring an annotated hard copy of the reading will be able to take that day's quick write (QW). Note: readings accessed via smartphone or other electronic devices are not hard copies. A hard copy is a printed paper version of a reading (i.e. paper copy of a reading from Canvas).

- ❖ Grammar Review & Practice (as needed)

- ❖ Engaged Participation in Class Activities, Peer Groups Exercises, and Whole Class Discussions: (see Attendance & Participation section for more details)

- ❖ Regular Class Attendance: (see Attendance & Participation section for details)

- ❖ Formatting Assignments: All writing (other than in-class) must be typed using a standard 12-point font and double-spaced, the pages formatted with one inch margins. Staple pages together.

- ❖ Deadline & Make-Up Policies: As a general rule, I do not accept late work. Any exception to this rule will be determined on a case-by-case basis. All assignments must be turned in on the date they are due to receive credit. As noted in other sections, though, if you are absent, you may email me a copy of your homework by our class starting time on the day it is due (followed by a hard copy turned in to me when you return to class) to receive credit.

Grading Policy:

- ❖ Attendance & Participation (30 points possible): English 1A is a workshop course. Both your presence and your engaged participation in class are vital not only for your individual success but for the success of the class as a whole. The attendance points I assign you (following every class meeting) will be based just as much on your preparedness and participation as your presence in that day's session. For specific attendance requirements see attendance section below.

- ❖ 3 Major Essays Submitted with Prewriting and Earlier Drafts on Required Due Date (100 pts each = 300 points possible): All drafts are to be included in the working folder. Each essay will have been read and responded to in (at least) one peer group session (all peer responses are to be included in the working portfolio).

- ❖ 2 Discovery Drafts (15 pts each = 30 pts possible)

- ❖ 2 Reading Responses (15 pts each = 30 pts possible)

- ❖ 3 Formal In-Class Writes (15 pts each = 45 pts possible)

- ❖ In-Class & Online Writing, Quizzes, Homework Assignments, & Group Presentations (65 points possible): There will be many opportunities to accumulate points through activities such as informal in-class writing (quick writes (QWs), freewrites, pre-reading questions, etc.), quizzes, group activities, and homework assignments. In addition, you may be participating in one (or more) small group presentations (time permitting).

Note concerning quick writes: A major portion of in-class writing will be in the form of quick writes (QWs). Only students who bring an annotated hard copy of the reading will be able to take the day's quick write (QW). Note: readings accessed via smartphone or other electronic devices are not hard copies. A hard copy is a printed paper version of a reading (i.e. paper copy of a reading from Canvas).

- ❖ Extra Credit: The official CR policy stipulates that extra credit is NOT available in English 1A.

- ❖ Final Course Grade: There are a total of 500 points available for this course. Final grades will be based on the following scale: A (465-500), A- (450-464), B+ (435-449), B (415-434), B- (400-414), C+ (385-399), C (365-384), C- (350-364), D (300-349).

Attendance and Participation Policies:

Since much of this class revolves around our discussions, you will need to be in class every day, on time, and prepared to engage in the day's activities. Please note that I will be taking attendance (in one form or another) every class period. I will also be keeping track of individual participation in group discussions and activities. (Grades are influenced by the level of participation in class.) Being late to class also affects your grade.

It is imperative that you come to class on time and prepared to actively participate. Lateness, lack of preparation, and inattentiveness will not only affect your ability to succeed in this course, it will also have an effect on the functioning of the class as a whole. Please keep this in mind.

The English Department Attendance Policy:

Students at the College are expected to attend all sessions of each class in which they are enrolled. Students may not miss more than two weeks of class. For example, if a class meets twice a week, students should not exceed 4 absences for the semester. If a student exceeds the limit on absences before week 11 of the semester, an instructor will notify the student that he or she has been dropped. After that notification, students are still responsible to go into Web Advisor and withdraw themselves from the class, in order not to receive an F. After week 10, excessive absences will likely result in failure.

Before Census (Week 3): Be aware that if you've missed multiple classes and/or have not been turning in work, your name may be cleared from the class roster following Friday of Week 3 (Census Week). If you find yourself in this boat, come and talk to me about your situation as soon as possible.

Classroom Policies:

It has been my experience that most students are aware of the standards of appropriate classroom behavior and conduct themselves accordingly. However, for those who may not be sure what kind of behavior is expected in college classrooms, I've included the following:

Avoid interrupting the class by coming in late, leaving early, or coming and going from the room during class time. Please do your best to take care of personal needs before coming to class. Repeatedly walking in and out of the classroom is disruptive to our learning community. However, I do realize that there are times when emergencies occur that make such interruptions unavoidable. In these cases, if the situation can't wait for a break time, of course you may excuse yourself from class for a moment. Please just don't make a habit of it.

Note: We will make every effort to take a short break halfway through class for folks to use the restroom, check their phone, or eat a snack. However, these breaks are not sufficient time to go to the cafeteria and order food or beverages. Please take note of the above and plan accordingly.

Additional Note: See Disruptive Classroom Behavior on page two of this syllabus for additional information and understand that disrupting our classroom learning community will result in your being suspended from class for the day and referred to campus disciplinary authorities. Please know that I take my responsibility to provide a safe and productive learning environment for all students very seriously.

The instructor reserves the right to add, delete, or revise sections of this course or syllabus. Changes will be announced in class.
