Evaluation & Grading Policy

Grade Distribution

70 % / Essay 1 = 10%

Essay 2, 3, & 4 = 60% (20% each)

30% / online lessons, quizzes, discussions, and small assignments

= 100%. total

Late Work

Work will be considered Late if posted after the due date indicated on the assignment page. All late work will be accepted, but you may receive a lower score for lateness. Please contact me individually if you are having trouble with deadlines.

Revisions:

If you receive a 60% or below on assignments 1, 2, or 3, you may revise them for a higher grade. I will average the newer grade with the older grade for this newer grade. Please see me after grades are distributed and we will work out a schedule for completion of the new draft.

A Note about Grades: This class subscribes to a Labor-Based Contract Grading system. To quote Asou Inoue, “I offer this first draft of a contract that focuses on the responsibilities we’ll assume, not the things to which someone else (usually the teacher) will hold you accountable. We will try to create a culture of support: a culture where we all function as allies, fellow-travelers with various skills, abilities, experiences, and talents that we offer the group, rather than adversaries working against each other for grades or approval by teachers.”

What does this all mean? This means that you will get assessments of your writing in order to improve, but your grades will be based on the work you do in this class and not a conventional system of assessment based on merit, approved by me, subjective to only me.

More information about labor-based grading can be found here:

<https://wac.colostate.edu/books/perspectives/labor/>

Student Feedback Policy

Students should expect that their instructor will:

1. Participate as a community member
2. Be available within 24 hours of written communication
3. Treat students fairly and with respect to all participants
4. Provide prompt and adequate feedback for all assignment submissions
5. Provide help to anyone that needs it.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Policies for this Class

Class participation and Attendance policy

Students are expected to comply with all expectations and requirements of students (see above). Each of you is an important member of our community and should accept responsibility to be part of the class at all times. You will quickly establish your role in the class, and we will miss you when you do not participate.

Zoom Classes

Students are expected to EITHER attend our zoom classes or watching the recorded zoom class afterward. All zoom classes will be recorded and posted ASAP onto our canvas site. If it is clear from your writing assignments and discussions that you have not been either watching or attending zoom classes, this could negatively affect your participation grade.

Discussion and Reflection Posts:

Online prompts will be posted at least one week in advance, and you will have those 7 days to complete the assignments. A complete discussion assignment includes responses to at least 2 peers in the discussion. The original post will be a minimum of 250 words, while the thoughtful responses will be a minimum of 150 words.

Participation:

In order to be an active member of the classroom, you must participate. By reading the assignments and being prepared to engage in active discussion, you will become a more critical thinker and thus, a better argumentative writer. Participation will be incorporated into the 30 pts.

Readings

All readings are required for this class. Because this is a literature-based class, there will be a lot of reading. You must be prepared to discuss and write about each reading assignment on the day that it is due. Failure to do so will signal failure to participate in class, which will affect your grade.

You'll notice that some of the readings are not synced with class lectures and activities. This is done on purpose, as I want you to digest, process, and develop your ideas on the readings before we discuss them in class.
