Evaluation & Grading Policy

This course is classified as a pass or fail course, and students must pass ENGL-1S in order to pass ENGL-1A. Students should attend most, if not all of class lessons to be successful in this course. Additionally, students must complete the final reflection paper that will coincide with the final project in ENGL-1A.

Assignment Breakdown

Informal Exercises 50%

Final Reflection Paper 50%

Assignment Breakdown

Informal Exercises

This broad category includes reflections, free-writes, and other more informal assignments that will evidence students' engagement and participation in the online composition community. Students should be prepared, however, to engage in peer response activities in this course. Those activities will be filed underneath this category and will be very important to your writing process. Sharing your work with your classroom community is a required element to this course.

Final Reflection Paper (One single spaced page in length)

Students will be asked to examine their writing process for the purpose of reflecting on the growth they made within this semester. This is less of a "paper" and formatting like a traditional letter written to me, your instructor. I want to see you demonstrate a reflective understanding of your process and of your writing. Templates and additional resources will be provided for students prior to this being assigned.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Late Work

Late work will not be accepted unless arrangements for an extension were made in advance (two days prior to the assignment due date). I understand life happens, and very often we find ourselves overwhelmed at the most inopportune of times; however, deadlines should be respected when possible. In order to provide quality, timely feedback I must receive work on time or be given notice that work will be late.

To request an extension I ask that students do the following:

Utilizing canvas messaging, draft a message to me with “Extension [Assignment Name]” in the subject line. In the body of your message explain the situation and then tell me your plan. Do you plan to turn it in tomorrow? Two days? Do you need an additional week?

This information will help me to negotiate with you a revised due date that will fit within both of our schedules. Keep in mind, extensions are granted on a case-to-case basis. I may not always be able to grant an extension. Further, I will not grant an extension after the due date has passed.

Feedback

Quality, timely feedback will be given on the final reflection paper. Student should expect feedback to come within one week following the assignment’s due date. All feedback will be available through canvas.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor’s directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Community College Student Health and Wellness

Resources, tools, and trainings regarding health, mental health, wellness, basic needs and more designed for California community college students, faculty and staff are available on the California Community Colleges Health & Wellness website.

Wellness Central is a free online health and wellness resource that is available 24/7 in your space at your pace.

Students seeking to request a counseling appointment for academic advising or general counseling can email counseling@redwoods.edu.

Emergency procedures / Everbridge

College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system called Everbridge. In the event of an emergency on campus you will receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones. Registration is not necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Check to make sure your contact information is up-to-date by logging into WebAdvisor <https://webadvisor.redwoods.edu> and selecting 'Students' then 'Academic Profile' then 'Current Information Update.'

Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions. For more information see the Redwoods Public Safety Page.
