Catalog Description

Study argumentation and critical thinking in this second-semester composition course focused on reading and writing across multiple academic communities. Practice critical reading and research strategies, examine and evaluate primarily nonfiction texts, and craft responses through argumentative writing. Strengthen your information literacy and documentation skills and satisfy both the full-year composition and the critical thinking transfer requirements.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Analyze argumentative claims.
2. Respond to arguments with persuasive critical essays. Locate, synthesize, and document sources for use in response to arguments.
3. Demonstrate the capacity to read, analyze and evaluate non-fiction texts in support of academic inquiry and argumentation.
4. Utilize flexible strategies for writing expository and argumentative college-level essays.
5. Incorporate primary and secondary sources into essays using appropriate documentation format.

ENGL 1A

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Coursework and Attendance: We will do many assignments in class, and discussions will take place entirely in the classroom. Not attending class means missing out on guided practices, discussions - pretty much everything!

That being said, please do not attend class if you exhibit any symptoms of COVID-19. Self-test and stay home. I will provide online resources to enable you to still participate even if you cannot attend class, but that participation will never be the same, unfortunately. I cannot design and run two simultaneous classes for students who don't want to attend in-person classes.

Late assignment policy: You have one week from the assignment due date to submit late work and still receive credit AND feedback. After one week, you will still receive credit, but no feedback. I reserve the right to not accept work more than two weeks late.

Graded Assignments:

- Content readings and MRLs (turned in in-class) 25%
- Discussions (attendance and reflection, in-class) 25%
- Practice Essays and Formal Essays (Components and Drafts) (submitted on Canvas) 40%*
- Quizzes (on Canvas) 10%

*To pass my course, you must submit all formal essays and their components, at minimum.

Assignment Feedback: Feedback will be available to students through various Canvas features including rubrics, comment bubbles, grading comments, and audio/video recordings. For additional verbal feedback in a one-on-one conference, you are encouraged to make an appointment with me.

Required text:

None. Your textbook and reading materials will be provided.

Course Materials: I recommend you have access to a computer. You can rent one from College of the Redwoods. I also recommend that you have a writing utensil and a notebook, as well as a daily planner.

Masking and COVID Safety: Wearing a decent mask (N95, available for free at College of the Redwoods) is the only way to reliably prevent the spread of COVID-19. If I test positive for COVID-19, we do not have class. There is no substitute teacher. Class will just be canceled until I test negative. You will lose out on your education. If you test positive for COVID-19, you will have to stay home until you test negative. Wear a mask in my classroom, and neither of those things is likely to happen.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
