Attendance

Your online class commitment will require at least as much time as you would dedicate to a traditional class. College of the Redwoods requires three hours per week of class (online) time AND an additional one to two hours per week to complete course readings and assignments. Be prepared to make the time commitment required to successfully complete this class.

Student Computer Skills

Online courses require adequate computer skills along with self-discipline, attention to detail, and turning work in on time. You should be able to submit coursework to Canvas along with navigating websites, opening and downloading files, and using a word processor. You will need to be able to convert files into word documents (.doc or .docx), Adobe Acrobat files (.pdf), or rich text format (.rtf).

Disability-Related Services

If you are eligible for disability related accommodations as per determination by our campus Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS), please contact me as soon as possible to discuss these. DSPS can assist you with determining eligibility for accommodations and can be reached at (707) 476-4820. DSPS is located on the Eureka and Del Norte campuses.

Submitting Work

All student work is submitted in Canvas. Do your work first in a word processing program and then copy and paste your text into Canvas. Your work needs to go in the text boxes, not as attachments. However, it is ok to submit your SEP as an attachment.

Grading

Grading details and criteria are posted in Canvas under "Assignments." All work is graded as it submitted with the exception of Discussions. Discussions are graded after the due date to allow ample time for students to post classmate or self-responses.

Word Count

Journals, Study Plans, and Discussion postings (not classmate or self responses) must at least 150 words. In Microsoft Word: 1) Highlight the text you want to know the word count of. 2) Click "Tools" at the very top. 3) Click on "Word Count."

Late Work

Late work is accepted until the last day of class if it is done to the grading rubric expectations. Discussions, Journals, and Study Plans will receive a score of 3. SEP will receive 9 pts.

Evaluation

There are 100 points available to earn in this course. Students can access current grade in Campus Grades. Grades can be calculated by dividing the number of points earned by 100 or by adding up what grades you received (or think you will get) and using the percentage scale below.

A = 90-100 pts. B = 80-89 pts. C = 70-79 pts. D = 60-69 pts. F = 59 pts. & below

Journals

The 8 Journals provide opportunities to explore your thoughts and feelings as you experiment with the success strategies presented in this course. They are worth 5 points each and 40% of your grade. Please write your Journals for yourself, not for me. If you want my comment, just let me know with a note in the student text box when you submit your work.

Discussions

The 4 Discussions allow for student interaction around various strategies for creating success in college and in life. They are worth 5 points each and 20% of your grade. For full credit, you are required to respond to the prompt in at least 150 words and to respond to two classmates. There is one extra credit point to earn by responding to three students instead of the required two.

Study Plans

The 6 Study Plans provide an opportunity to deepen your learning and raise your grades. They are worth 5 points each and 30% of your grade. Many of the study plans involve trying out new study strategies in classes you are currently taking. If this is the only class you are taking this semester, consider focusing on a class you will be taking next semester. Find the current syllabi and class schedule to sit in on a lecture or class. Try checking the textbook out on reserve in the library. Look here for syllabi: <http://inside.redwoods.edu/syllabi/>. Contact April if you have any difficulty.

Student Education Plan (SEP)

A SEP is an individualized plan that provides a “master list” of the courses required to achieve your educational/career goals. It is worth 10 points, 10% of your grade. The SEP can be completed online or in-person with a CR advisor or counselor. In Canvas, SEP details, grading criteria, and a list of current CR counselors/advisors are posted.
