Course Description
A course which offers instructional support for students in College Trigonometry (Math 25), given in a self-paced lab environment. Students receive on-on-one and small group instruction designed to enhance success in Math 25. Note: Students should be enrolled in Math 25 or similar course. Every 1.0 unit of LAB requires 54 hours (45 actual 60-minute hours is equivalent to 54 "classroom" 50-minute hours).
Student Learning Outcomes
Students should be able to do as a result of taking this course:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Use numerical, graphical, symbolic, and verbal representations to solve problems and communicate mathematics.</li> <li>2. Apply knowledge obtained through individualized instruction, calculator or use of software applications to enhance learning in Math 25.</li> </ol>
Special Accommodations
College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services . Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS at 707-476-4280.
Academic Support
Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs &amp; Services , for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.
Academic Honesty
In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee.
