Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Review and apply algebraic skills for application in chemistry.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

The material in this class is designed to assist students with CHEM-2. Let me know if you are not taking this class concurrently.

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Math 304 (the credit version of this course): If you are taking this course for credit then you need to score 66% or more on the course assignments.

Math 204 (the non-credit version of this course): If you are taking this course for non-credit, then it is advisable to get 70%+ on all practice problems, but any level of participation in this course fulfills your obligation.

The material for this course is arranged into Modules of content, which presents a series of small lessons with practice problems that works you through a topic that you need to be successful in Chem 2. Each module will contain the following:

Lessons - video and/or reading lessons to introduce you to a topic

Practice Problems - a set of problems that gives you a chance to practice the concepts you just learned about.

Support Sessions - Each week I will hold one (optional) support session using Zoom. These sessions will be at noon on Thursdays. Everyone is invited! I will answer questions and provide extra practice for the topic that is being covered that week. If you are struggling to get a 70%+ on the practice problems, then I strongly recommend that you attend a session!

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.
