Catalog Description

A mathematics course designed to develop the computational skills needed in many Career Education programs. Topics include geometry, measurement, number sense, estimation, basic statistics, trigonometric functions, and algebraic thinking. Note: Students are advised to review the requirements for their program and/or consult with an Academic Advisor or CE Faculty to ensure this course is appropriate for your educational goals.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate proficiency with arithmetic, estimation, and basic algebraic skills focused on applications.
2. Employ geometry to analyze and solve application problems.
3. Employ trigonometry to analyze and solve application problems.
4. Interpret statistical information to make decisions.

Prerequisites/co-requisites/ recommended preparation

None

Required Materials

Textbook: You do not need to purchase a textbook from the bookstore for this course. We will cover a wide range of topics over the course of the semester; hence we will use 3 different free textbooks. The links to the OpenStax online books are shown here:

<https://openstax.org/details/books/prealgebra>

<https://openstax.org/details/books/algebra-and-trigonometry>

<https://openstax.org/details/introductory-statistics>

Computing Devices: Regular access to a desktop/laptop personal computer with internet access is highly recommended. Further, either a scientific calculator or a scientific calculator app for a phone or tablet is highly recommended.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Your grade is based on points earned from homework, exams, and a project.

Homework (40%): Each week you will be assigned a homework assignment. Some weeks they will be online assignments done through MyOpenMath/Canvas. Other weeks they will be written assignments that must be turned in by hand. Online homework may be turned in late for no penalty, but any written assignments will have a 25% penalty for being turned in late.

Exams (60%): There will be three exams in the course. Each exam will be worth 15% of the course grade. These exams will take place at the completion of each of the three units in the class. One exam for Arithmetic and Algebra, one exam for Geometry and Trigonometry, and one for Descriptive Statistics. There are no make-up exams allowed

Letter grades are assigned based on the following criteria:

A 100-90% , A- 90-88% , B+ 88-86% , B 86-80% , B- 80-78% , C+78-70% , C 70-60% , F 60-0%

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
