Required Materials

Textbook title: Interactive Statistics
Edition: 3rd
Author: Martha Aliaga and Brenda Gunderson
ISBN-13: 9780134995465

Textbook title: Naked Statistics
Author: Charles Wheelan
ISBN: - 978-0-393-34777-7

Other Required Materials:

- Calculator: Texas Instruments TI-84 graphing calculator.
- A digital camera, smart phone or other device capable of taking photos that can be converted to PDF format.

Catalog Description

An introduction to basic concepts of descriptive and inferential statistics, with emphasis on the meaning and use of statistical significance. Students will use probability techniques to make decisions via hypothesis testing and will estimate parameters using confidence intervals. The course includes applications from a variety of technical and social science fields.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

- Accurately communicate statistical ideas using correct statistical notation, graphs, and vocabulary.

- Use descriptive and inferential statistics to solve real-world problems.
- Demonstrate appropriate use of technology in making decisions based upon real-world data.
- Read and interpret information that contains statistical analysis and be able to communicate these results.
- Judge the validity of research reported in the mass media and peer reviewed journals.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Grade Categories and Weights		Letter Grade Assignment
Homework	15%	A: 90 – 100%
Discussions	15%	B: 80 – 89%
Quizzes/Activities	20%	C: 70 – 79%
In-depth Analysis Project	20%	D: 60 – 69%
Linear Regression Project	15%	F: Less than 60%
Final Exam	15%

Homework: Regular homework will be assigned and due dates will be clearly noted in Canvas. Your homework will be evaluated on accuracy, completeness and neatness.

Homework Format: You will complete the homework assignments using paper and pencil then photograph each page with a smart phone, digital camera, or other electronic device. Your homework assignments must be in .pdf file format. You are responsible for uploading these files, in the correct format into Canvas before the deadline.

File Format: Portable Document Format (PDF) is one of the most versatile and widely utilized file formats in use today. All files submitted for this course must be in pdf format and have a logical, descriptive file name that starts with your last name (example - OlsenHW1.pdf).

Activities: You will be assigned several activities during the course. You are welcome to collaborate with anyone you wish on these assignments, but the final writeup must be your own work.

Discussions: You are required to participate in all discussions during the semester. Please note that participation in these discussions is part of your grade for this course. Your score for this part of the grade will be based on the quality and frequency of your posts.

Quizzes: Quizzes will be administered via Canvas' "Quizzes" tool. These are open-book quizzes, but you should prepare as you would for a face-to-face class. You will have limited time for each quiz and will not have time to search and find answers in the lectures or textbook. The quiz will cover the material covered since the previous quiz. Each quiz will be posted to Canvas, and you may take the quiz anytime during the open period. Once you start the quiz though the clock starts, and you will have a fixed amount of time to complete the quiz. You are expected to follow the class code of conduct on quizzes (see below).

Naked Statistics is a novel about statistics. Within are stories and simple explanations for key statistical concepts. This novel is a required reading from which graded discussions and quiz questions will come. You are given a reading schedule within the homework assignments, but are also encouraged to read this novel sooner if possible as its contents are meant to enrich your understanding of statistical thought.

In-depth Analysis Project: For this project you will select a particular statistical study published in a peer-reviewed journal and do an in-depth analysis of the statistical issues applicable to the study. You are free to and encouraged to work together on these projects.

Linear Regression Project: For this project you will do a complete linear regression analysis using data provided in the assignment culminating in a properly formatted report.

Final Exam: The final exam for this course will be cumulative and consist of problems similar to the quizzes as well as short essay questions. The final exam will be administered via Canvas. The final exam is open-book, but you should prepare as you would for a face-to-face class. You are limited to 3 hours for the final exam and will not have time to search and find answers in the lectures or textbook. You are expected to follow the class code of conduct. You are expected to follow the class code of conduct on quizzes (see below).

Computer Skills

Success in online courses depends in part on adequate computer skills. Students must be able to navigate the course website, open and download files, use a word processor and convert files to portable document format (.pdf), take photos of written work and manage photographic file formats, and submit files to the Canvas course website. The only acceptable file format for all submitted work is PDF. It is your responsibility to meet the technological demands of the course. Technological support is available via multiple online sources, and I will assist you in finding the most appropriate source for help.

Computer/Technology Requirements

This is not a course that can be successfully completed using a phone or tablet. There is a great deal of writing required, and a computer with a keyboard is a necessity. Also, even though Canvas works with most internet browsers, my experience has been that Firefox is the most reliable browser to use with Canvas. You also need to have reliable access to the internet. I would recommend broadband services from cable, DSL, or satellite providers.

Students can obtain a free Office 365 license (includes Word, Excel, PowerPoint and more) with a valid CR email.

Student feedback policy

In a face-to-face course, students would be expected to come to each class during the semester. Similarly, you are expected to “come to class” in this course by logging into Canvas and participating in this course. While some online courses are self-paced, this one is not. Each week new assignments open, new discussions (some graded and some not graded) are assigned, and announcements are made. To be engaged, students must take the initiative to log in and participate.

The Canvas message tool is the way to stay in contact with me. Students who do well in this course message me regularly with questions about the reading, homework problems and video lectures. It is important to send detailed questions. The process of writing your question out in detail becomes part of the learning experience in this course and also helps me to focus my explanations.

Often when I write an elaborate explanation to a particular student, one that I believe would benefit the entire class, I will post it as an announcement. Any student may then post a follow up question or comment as a “reply” to the announcement.

Submitting Work

All work for this course must be submitted via Canvas. Many assignments in this course require file uploads which as explained in more detail below must be converted to PDF file format. Once converted to PDF format, these files are then uploaded into Canvas via the assignment’s portal. This is the only way in which required file uploads will be accepted. Work submitted as attachments to Canvas messages or email messages will not be opened or downloaded to my computer.

Hard Deadline

All work for this work must be submitted on or before July 20. After this date all assignments in Canvas are permanently locked.

Contesting a Grade

Students have one week from the time an assignment has been graded to contest the grade with me. If for any reason you are not sure why you earned the grade you received, or if you unclear on the grading policies, please message me via the Canvas messaging system.

Incomplete Grade

As a general rule, I do not give incomplete grades. This does not mean, however, that I will not consider such a grade. Only with extreme and unpredictable extenuating circumstances, happening at the very end of the semester will I consider an incomplete grade. College of the Redwoods has strict guidelines with regard to a grade of incomplete (see the catalog). Incompletes are not an option to repair a low grade earned throughout the semester. A student must have already demonstrated significant and successful course progression beyond the last date to drop the course to be considered for an incomplete.

Educational Accessibility & Support

College of the Redwoods is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for qualified students who could benefit from additional educational support and services. You may qualify if you have a physical, mental, sensory, or intellectual condition which causes you to struggle academically, including but not limited to:

- Mental health conditions such as depression, anxiety, PTSD, bipolar disorder, and ADHD
- Common ailments such as arthritis, asthma, diabetes, autoimmune disorders, and diseases
- Temporary impairments such as a broken bone, recovery from significant surgery, or a pregnancy-related disability
- A learning disability (e.g., dyslexia, reading comprehension), intellectual disability, autism, or acquired brain injury
- Vision, hearing, or mobility challenges

Available services include extended test time, quiet testing environments, tutoring, counseling and advising, alternate formats of materials (e.g., audio books, E-texts), assistive technology, on-campus transportation, and more. If you believe you might benefit from disability- or health-related services and accommodations, please contact Disability Services and Programs for Students \(DSPS\). If you are unsure whether you qualify, please contact DSPS for a consultation: dsps@redwoods.edu.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

AI Use Class Policy

Recent advancements in generative artificial intelligence (AI) have made large language models such as ChatGPT and Google's Bard widely available. However, overuse of these tools in this class can undermine your learning and curtail the development of your critical and creative thinking skills. In addition, AI outputs are often unreliable and frequently subject to bias. For these reasons, the policy of this class is that AI cannot be used at any point in the completion of class assignments, including discussion posts. Any or all of your assignment submissions and discussion posts may be screened by AI detection software, but the real penalty for AI misuse is that you will miss out on an opportunity to learn.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

Emergency Procedures / Everbridge

College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system called Everbridge. In the event of an emergency on campus you will receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones.

Registration is not necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Check to make sure your contact information is up-to-date by logging into WebAdvisor and selecting 'Students' then 'Academic Profile' then 'Current Information Update.'

Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions. For more information see the Redwoods Public Safety.

In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building anywhere in the District:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel

Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the campus authorities.
