Texts Required:

Dautrich, Kenneth and Yalof, David American Government, Brief Version, 2nd Edition (Boston: Wadsworth Cengage Learning, 2011);

and

Gerston, Larry and Christensen, Terry California Politics and Government, 12th Edition (Boston: Wadsworth Cengage Learning, 2013)

Grading:

Class Participation	20%	Written Assignments/Reports (2)	30%
Mid-Term Exam	25%	Final Exam	25%

1. Class Participation: All students will be expected to participate in answering and commenting on discussion questions in class. This is an opportunity for all students to discuss political issues, and to express their opinions. An open forum for political discussion means that all students should feel free to express their opinions and respect the opinions of others.

2. Written Assignments (Reports): There are two (2) written assignments (reports) that should be between 3-6 typed pages (double-spaced). The written assignments (reports) are identified in the syllabus. Further details on the requirements for each written assignment (report) are provided in a handout.

3. Mid-Term Exam: The exam will cover course materials (reading assignments, lecture notes, discussion topics, etc) addressed through Lesson 14. The exam is 90 minutes (1 1/2 hours) long, consisting primarily of multiple choice, true-false, and short-answer essay questions.

4. Final Exam: The exam will cover course materials (reading assignments, lecture notes, discussion topics, etc) addressed after Lesson 15. The exam is 90 minutes (1 1/2 hours) long, consisting primarily of multiple choice, true-false, and short-answer essay questions.
