COURSE DESCRIPTION: An introduction to state and local politics and government with some emphasis on California. Specific topics include governors, state legislatures, state courts, local governments, current issues in state and local politics, California political history, and the California Constitution.

ATTENDANCE: Class attendance is required because there will be materiel and discussions in the class, which will not come from the textbook. There is more to the course than merely reading the textbook. Classroom discussion and small group work are important parts of the course.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS:

- Governing States and Localities, 5th Edition; Smith, Greenblatt & Vaughn, CQ Press (2015)
- GOVERNING Magazine (Free Web-Based Version)

CLASS GRADES AND EXAMS: The course grade will be composed of the following:

- Six Essays: 75%
- Weekly Discussion Questions: 10%
- Class participation/attendance: 15%

The essays, which are to be completed outside of class, will require a limited amount of research. The proper use of standard English, which includes grammar, spelling, and punctuation is part of the grade of all written work.

A grade of "F" on two or more essays or on the class participation/attendance or the weekly questions category will result in an "F" grade for the entire course.

Instructor-Initiated Class Withdrawal Policy: -- “Excessive Absences” – defined as missing six or more class sessions. This means that if you miss six or more class sessions, I may withdraw you from the class.

COURSE GRADING SCALE:

A	= >95% - 100%
A-	= >90% - 95%
B+	= >85% - 90%
B	= >82% - 85%
B-	= >80% - 82%
C+	= >75% - 80%
C	= >70% - 75%
D	= 61% - 70%
F	= <61%

The “incomplete” grade status will not be assigned except under extraordinary circumstances.

CLASS SCHEDULE – ASSIGNED READINGS:

At the end of each class, the reading assignment for the next class will be announced and posted on our MyCR website. Most of the reading assignments will come from your textbook. Occasionally, class handouts will be posted on-line and/or distributed, to be read as part of the course work. Please bring these items with you to the class meeting where they will be discussed.

Code of Conduct

Preface:

The purpose of this code is to ensure that both the instructor and students are mindful of the rights and responsibilities of each other. Additionally, adherence to this code will help ensure that the class experience is both meaningful and interesting to all concerned.

Instructor Expectations:

Punctuality -- Students should make every effort to arrive several minutes before class. Tardiness disrupts the learning and teaching process for the instructor and students. It is rude to habitually be late for class.

Leaving Early -- Students should stay for the entire class. Often, important material is covered at the end of the class period and assignments for the following class period may be made at that time.

Attentiveness -- Students should stay awake and be attentive for the class period. If one is too tired to attend class, it is best not to come. Drowsing off is embarrassing both for the student concerned and the instructor.

Talking in Class /Cell Phones & Pagers– The passing of notes or talking to other students outside of class discussion is both disruptive to the learning process and rude to other students and the instructor. Turn off or set on “silent”, all cell phones and pagers.

Plagiarism – Plagiarism is defined as claiming any work of another person as your own without attribution to the true author. It also includes taking a substantial portion (approximately 25% or more) of your assignment from another source, whether or not credit is given to that source. This includes the work of fellow students. If a student is found to have plagiarized the work of another, the penalty which the instructor may impose ranges from a failing grade for the particular assignment to a failing grade for the entire course.

Student Expectations:

Punctuality – Students have every right to expect that the instructor will arrive on time or shortly before the class begins.

Civility – Students have a right for the instructor to treat them with respect both in and out of the classroom and to ensure that all students have an opportunity to express their opinions on relevant matters during the class period.

Classroom environment – The instructor will make every attempt to make the classroom experience useful, comfortable, and interesting for the student
