Course Description

This course addresses both the philosophic roots and the contemporary operation of American national, state, and local government. Specific topics include constitutional development, federal-state relations, and the rights and obligations of citizens under the federal and California constitutions.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Explain the history and philosophy of the Constitution, politics, and government in the US.
2. Identify the major provisions of the California and US Constitution.
3. Compare the three branches of California and US Government, and related political institutions.
4. Outline the relationship between the states and national government (ie. federalism).
5. Analyze contemporary issues facing California and the US system of government.

Special Accommodations

College of the Redwoods complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act in making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Please present your written accommodation request at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. No last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments will be made. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability related services and may need accommodations, please see me or contact Disabled Students Programs and Services. Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS at 707-476-4280.

Academic Support

Academic support is available at Counseling and Advising and includes academic advising and educational planning, Academic Support Center for tutoring and proctored tests, and Extended Opportunity Programs & Services, for eligible students, with advising, assistance, tutoring, and more.

Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: <http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services>, and scroll to AP 5500. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at:

<http://www.redwoods.edu/board/Board-Policies/Chapter-5-Student-Services> and scroll to AP 5500.

Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Emergency Procedures for the Eureka campus:

Please review the campus evacuation sites, including the closest site to this classroom (posted by the exit of each room). The Eureka campus emergency map is available at:

(<http://www.redwoods.edu/aboutcr/Eureka-Map>; choose the evacuation map option). For more information on Public Safety, go to <http://www.redwoods.edu/publicsafety>. In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building.
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building:
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel.
- Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the Incident Commander or campus authorities. (CR's lower parking lot and Tompkins Hill Rd are within the Tsunami Zone.)

RAVE – College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system. In the event of an emergency on campus you can receive an alert through your personal email and/or phones at your home, office, and cell. Registration is necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Please go to <https://www.GetRave.com/login/Redwoods> and use the “Register” button on the top right portion of the registration page to create an account. During the registration process you can elect to add additional information, such as office phone, home phone, cell phone, and personal email. Please use your CR email address as your primary Registration Email. Your CR email address ends with “redwoods.edu.” Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions.

College of the Redwoods is committed to equal opportunity in employment, admission to the college, and in the conduct of all of its programs and activities.

POLSC 10: US Government & Politics Spring 2018 Course Syllabus

Bring your syllabus to each class session. The syllabus will orient you to the day's activities, allow you to fill in new assignments, due dates, and/or make changes to the course outline.

Professor: Ryan Emenaker -- ryan-emenaker@redwoods.edu -- 707-476-4306

Office Hours: HU108F; M/W 12:00-1:00 & T/Th 12-1:00. I am also available to help you by phone and e-mail, and I will attempt to make other arrangements if needed.

Course Introduction: Ideally, you would leave this class able to remember the particulars about U.S. Government years from now. Realistically, you should be able to apply the principles of this course to political issues for years to come. Facts are simple to memorize, but they fade quickly. Thinking and analyzing stay with you forever. Even if years from now you can't remember a great deal about how a bill becomes a law, but you can support your opinion in a political debate with friends or family, this course will have succeeded in empowering you.

In this class, significant attention will be given to thinking about questions with no clear answer, especially the issues of: (1) how democratic is American politics and (2) how much emphasis should be given to the competing values of security, liberty, and equality. Students are encouraged to raise questions at any time. The professor does not have all the answers; you should feel free to question and challenge me.

Meeting Times/Locations: T/Th 10:05- 11:30 SC 208 (Section E2639) 3 Units.

Text (required):

1) By the People: Debating American Government by Morone and Kersh 3rd Edition (Oxford University Press; 2017) ISBN 978-0190298418 is a traditional textbook. This is the Full Edition, not the Brief one.

2) Current Debates in American Government by Emenaker and Morone 1st Edition (Oxford University Press; 2015) ISBN 9780190272760 is a collection of readings I have compiled. These readings will be critical to your success in this class. You will be asked questions from these articles for classwork, for the quiz, for the Midterm, and for the Final. You will also use these readings, along with the textbook, for Reading Responses. You will want to take detailed notes on these articles, and you should bring your notes and the book to class. If you do not do this, you will find it very hard to answer the questions that are posed in class.

In order to help keep your costs down, I have worked out a deal with the publisher; if you order through oup.com/us, and use promo code HILL2017 you will receive a 20% discount off your Oxford University Press textbook order.

3) Additional readings and/or activities will be assigned through Canvas and/or handed out in class.

Instructor Expectations A considerable amount of reading, web research, and other work will be required as preparation for each class. To receive a passing grade, a minimum of 3 to 4 hours will be required to prepare for each session. Additional time will be needed to prepare for the Mid-Term, Final, and to complete homework and written assignments. Expect to put in about 9 hours-per-week for this class.

At a minimum, students are expected to:

1. Prepare carefully before class. Do the assigned reading, complete any assignments, think about the material, and bring questions and comments.
2. Expect that most of the work will be interesting and stimulating; contribute to making it so.
3. Keep abreast of current events. This includes regularly reading at least one newspaper.
4. Show up on time. Do not make other appointments during class hours.

If you miss class often, you will be dropped. Excessive absences is defined as missing more than 3 classes in a semester.

Canvas- Be certain that you know how to use Canvas, and that you are able to check your MyCR e-mail. I will be communicating to the class by e-mail, and through Canvas, with some frequency; I will assume you check your MyCR e-mail at least once a day. Canvas will be used to, post assignments, PowerPoints and lecture notes, send out announcements, and make changes to the course outline. If you are not able to use Canvas, or are not receiving messages from me, do not wait to fix this.

Grading:	Class Participation & Homework	= 200 points
	Quiz	= 50 points
	Mid-Term Exam	= 250 points
	Reading Responses	= 250 points
	Final Exam	= 250 points
	Total Semester Points	= 1,000

Grading Scale:

A	= 930 – 1000 pts
A-	= 900 – 929 pts
B+	= 866 – 899 pts
B	= 830– 865 pts
B-	= 800 – 829 pts
C+	= 750 – 799 pts
C	= 700 – 749 pts
D	= 600 – 699 pts
F	= 0 – 599 pts

An “incomplete” grade will not be given except under extraordinary circumstances.
A worksheet will be provided to out to help you compute your class grade.

Assignments & Grading:

1. Class Participation & Homework is 20% of your final grade and vital for your success in this class. I do not accept excuses for missed participation; you either participate or you don't. You can't participate if you're not in class. Participation in this course means taking an active role in class discussions, group-work, in-class written assignments, completing all assigned readings, and other assigned homework.

If you fail to attend class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed from one of your colleagues. If you miss a handout, most are on posted on Canvas. For those that are not, ask a colleague if you may copy theirs. I encourage everyone to exchange contact information with at least two others for these purposes.

2. Reading Responses are written pieces to 10 of the required readings. Do not attempt to summarize the entire chapter or article. Instead, pick a quote, theme, or idea from one of the assigned readings for that week then (1) write 1-2 paragraphs summarizing the author's intended meaning and (2) write 1-2 paragraphs describing your reactions to the quote or theme. I do not simply want to know what the authors said; I want to know what YOU think about what they said. A sample reading response is included on Canvas; please read this sample a couple of times to get a sense of what I expect. Also read the section labeled "Mistakes that Drive Me Crazy" at the end of the article titled "How to Write a 5 Paragraph Essay."

You must be responding to readings assigned from the previous two class sessions. You may only turn in one per week; absolutely no excuse--no matter how valid--will allow you to turn in more than one per week. Since you only need to turn in 10 for the entire semester you are already allowed to "miss" Reading Responses for 4 weeks of the semester. If you miss more than that--no matter the reason--then you do not deserve to receive full credit for this portion of the class. Extra credit will not be given for turning in more than 10.

These writings are designed to get you thinking about the readings we do throughout the semester, they reinforce classroom discussion and sharpen your analytical skills. Each response piece should be at least one typed page. Due at the start of class!!! No late or e-mailed response pieces will be accepted!!! You must have at least one turned in by Thursday, February 1st; however, you should feel free to turn one in before this.

3. Midterm Exam will be held during week #9 of the course (March 22). It will start promptly at the beginning of class. It may include true/false, multiple choice, identification, as well as short and long answer questions. Make-up exams (this includes the mid-term exam, the quiz and any other quizzes or exams that are assigned) are not allowed except under the most exceptional circumstances and are allowed at the discretion of the instructor. In such cases a student must: (1) contact the instructor immediately; (2) provide written documentation of a medical, legal, or similarly serious circumstance; and (3) schedule a time to take the exam within 72 hours of the original exam. The Midterm Study Guide will be handed out the week before the exam. Last semester's study review guide is included on Canvas; you may want to look at this throughout the semester to ensure you are learning the relevant material. There will be some time to do a review for the Midterm the class before the exam. The Quiz, scheduled for Tuesday 2/13, will follow the same similar procedures.

4. Final Exam, as per college policy, must be taken on the designated day and time for your class section, no exceptions, no make-up exams. We will do an in-class review for the Final during our final class meeting. The format will be substantially similar to the Midterm.
