Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at:

www.redwoods.edu/district/board/new/chapter5/documents/AP5500StudentConductCodeandDisciplinaryProceduresrev1.pdf Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at:

www.redwoods.edu/district/board/new/chapter5/documents/AP5500StudentConductCodeandDisciplinaryProceduresrev1.pdf

Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Grading:

Weekly Discussion Forums (24)	25%	Written Assignments/Reports (2)	25%
Mid-Term Exam	25%	Final Exam	25%

1. Weekly Discussion Forums: All students will be expected to participate in answering and commenting on all 24 discussion questions. This is an opportunity for all students to discuss the weekly political questions, and to express their opinions. An open forum for political discussion means that all students should feel free to express their opinions and respect the opinions of others. The discussion questions can be found in the Discussion section in Canvas.
2. Written Assignments (Reports): There are two (2) written assignments (reports) that should be typed (double-spaced). The written assignments (reports) are identified in the syllabus. Further details on the requirements for each written assignment (report) is provided in the Assignments section in Canvas.
3. Mid-Term Exam: The exam will cover course materials (reading assignments, lecture notes, discussion topics, etc) addressed through Lecture 10 (Week 8). The exam is 90 minutes (1 1/2 hours) long, consisting primarily of multiple choice, true-false, and short-answer essay questions. The Exam will appear in the Quizzes section of Canvas.
4. Final Exam: The exam will cover course materials (reading assignments, lecture notes, discussion topics, etc) addressed after Lecture 11 (Week 9). The exam is 90 minutes (1 1/2 hours) long, consisting primarily of multiple choice, true-false, and short-answer essay questions. The Exam will appear in the Quizzes section of Canvas.

Grading Scale: A=93-100; A-=90-93; B+=87-90; B=83-87; B-=80-83; C+=77-80;
C=70-77; D=60-70; F=below 60
