Catalog Description

This course addresses both the philosophic roots and the contemporary operation of American national, state, and local government. Specific topics include constitutional development, federal-state relations, and the rights and obligations of citizens under the federal and California constitutions.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

1. Explain the history and philosophy of the Constitution, politics, and government in the US.
2. Identify the major provisions of the California and US Constitution.
3. Compare the three branches of California and US Government, and related political institutions.
4. Outline the relationship between the states and national government (ie. federalism).
5. Analyze contemporary issues facing California and the US system of government.

Accessibility

Students will have access to online course materials that comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and College of the Redwoods policies. Students who discover access issues with this class should contact the instructor.

College of the Redwoods is also committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS).

Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near library
- Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

During COVID19, approved accommodations for distance education classes will be emailed to the instructor by DSPS. In the case of face to face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the first test so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments cannot usually be accommodated.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. It does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.

POLSC 2/PHIL2: Introduction to Political Philosophy
Fall 2021
Syllabus

Course Description: What is justice? What is freedom? What is the best government? Why should I obey the law? When is political authority legitimate? This course will explore these questions, among others, which lie at the core of political theory. We will be reading the canonical work of Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Marx, and Mill, as well as contemporary scholarship by authors including Berlin, Rawls, Novak, Cohen, and Okin.

In this class significant attention will be given to thinking about questions with no clear answers, and which have perplexed scholars throughout all of human history.

Meeting Times/Locations: M/W 10:05-11:30 HU 112 (POLSC2 E1916) (PHIL2 E1965) 3 Units.

Requirements: Students are expected to have read the texts thoroughly before attending class. Regular attendance is mandatory. Students are required to write two papers, of 5-7 pages in length (1800-2200 words), ten Reading Analyses (1-2 pages each), and complete a take-home final exam. The first paper topic will be assigned on Monday, October 4th and is due on Sunday, October 18th at 11 PM. The second paper topic will be assigned on Wednesday, November 10th and is due on Sunday, November 21st 11 PM.

Grade Distribution:

Paper 1: 20%
Paper 2: 20%
Reading Responses: 20%
Final Exam: 20%
Participation: 20%

Grading Scale:

A	= 93.0 – 100%
A-	= 90.0 – 92.9%
B+	= 86.6 – 89.9 %
B	= 83.0– 86.5%
B-	= 80.0 – 82.9%

Instructor Expectations A considerable amount of reading, and thinking are necessary to properly prepare for each class. To receive a passing grade, a minimum of 3 to 4 hours will be required to prepare for each session. Additional time will be needed to complete the essays, Reading Analyses, and the Final. Expect to put in about 9 hours-per-week for this class.

Canvas- Be certain that you know how to use Canvas, and that you are able to check your CR e-mail. I will be communicating to the class by e-mail, and through Canvas, with some frequency; I will assume you check your CR e-mail at least once a day. Canvas will be used to post readings, lecture notes, send out announcements, for Discussion Forums, submitting assignments, and to make changes to the course outline. If you are not able to use Canvas, or are not receiving messages from me, do not wait to fix this problem.

Assignments & Grading:

1. Class Participation is 20% of your final grade and vital for your success in this class. I do not accept excuses for missed participation; you either participate or you don't, and you can't participate if you're not in class. Participation in this course means taking an active role in class discussions, group-work, in-class written assignments, and completing all assigned readings, and other assigned homework.

If you fail to attend class, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed from one of your colleagues. If you miss a handout, most are on posted on Canvas. For those that are not, ask a colleague if you may copy theirs. I encourage everyone to exchange contact information with at least two others for these purposes.

* Online Discussion Kickoffs via Canvas. For each class session where we are going over readings and content, there is a "Discussion Kickoff" Discussion Forum where you are to post some initial thoughts or questions about the readings. This will help stimulate and guide classroom discussion; these are especially important since we will be attending class masked and this often makes it hard to ask the questions you would like about the readings. I am giving you 4 freebees to miss throughout the semester but for all other Discussion Kickoffs you are expected to post.

2. Reading Analyses are written pieces to 10 of the required readings. Do not attempt to summarize the entire chapter or article. Instead, pick a quote, theme, or idea from one of the assigned readings for that week, and then (1) write 1-2 paragraphs summarizing the author's intended meaning and (2) write 1-2 paragraphs describing your reactions/analysis to/of the quote or theme. I do not simply want to know what the authors said; I want to know what YOU think about what they said. A sample reading analysis is included on Canvas; please read this sample a couple of times to get a sense of what I expect. Also read the section labeled "Mistakes that Drive Me Crazy" at the end of the article titled "How to Write a 5 Paragraph Essay."

You must be responding to readings assigned from the previous two class sessions. You may only turn in one per week; absolutely no excuse--no matter how valid--will allow you to turn in more than one per week. Since you only need to turn in 10 for the entire semester you are already allowed to "miss" Reading Analyses for 5 weeks of the semester. If you miss more than that--no matter the reason--then you do not deserve to receive full credit for this portion of the class. Extra credit will not be given for turning in more than 10.

These writings are designed to get you thinking about the readings we do throughout the semester, they reinforce Lectures and Discussions and sharpen your analytical skills. Each response piece should be at least one double-spaced typed page (approx. 300-450 words). It must be submitted through Canvas as a Word Doc. No late or e-mailed analysis pieces will be accepted!!! You must have at least one turned in by Sunday, Sept. 12 or I may drop you from the course; however, you should feel free to turn one in before this.

3. Two Essays. Students are required to write two papers, of 5-7 pages (1800-2200 words) in length. The first paper topic will be assigned on Monday, October 4th and is due on Monday, October 18th at 11 PM. The second paper topic will be assigned on Wednesday, November 10th and is due on Sunday, November 21st 11 PM. You will be graded on the originality, insightfulness of your thesis, and on how well you use course materials to defend your argument.

4. Final Exam, we will do an in-class review during the Final Week of the Semester. The specific details of the Final will be distributed at that time.

Course Outline, Readings, and Due Dates Subject to Change at Instructors Discretion
(Changes will be announced in class and/or on Canvas)
