Class Participation:

To fully benefit from the class you must be present in the classroom. Therefore points are obtained from class participation. Participation is defined as the student sitting in class and contributing to discussions and/or exhibiting participation by being aware of classroom topics and listening carefully to student comments and lectures.

The topics this class covers will be personally relevant to you. It is important that a safe classroom environment is maintained. To ensure that, complete respect must be exhibited to fellow students and the instructor. The topics covered require a mature attitude be exhibited and a willingness to learn be maintained. Students should feel comfortable to make comments in the classroom and should feel a non-judgmental environment. If you have differing opinions than those expressed in class by fellow students or the instructor attempt to listen and expose yourself to varying viewpoints. We have a wonderful opportunity to learn when we have experiences outside of our norm.

If you share personal information with the class make sure you consider the implications of this prior. The classroom is not a therapy setting and confidentiality cannot be maintained. Make sure that you will continue to feel comfortable in class if you make personal disclosures.

Please keep in mind that there is a campus policy on student code of conduct in the classroom, which can be read in it's entirety on the CR homepage. Failure to comply with this code will result in the student being asked to leave the classroom.

Attendance:

Please be aware that if you decide to not continue with the class you should drop the class and let me know about your decision. An Administrative procedure, (AP) 5075, now allows instructors to withdraw students from class for non-participation through the 10th week of class. Non-participation includes missing 3 classes in a row and not taking tests, exams or turning in assignments. If you need to miss class due to illness or emergency please let me know what is occurring. Census date is 9/10, where I will be dropping students that have not been participating in class. On 10/5 I will again be dropping students that are not participating. The end of the 10th week is 11/2. Please keep me informed of anything that is interfering with your participation/attendance in this class.

Student Success:

Research that has been done on student success has highlighted the following areas. Think about these points and how you are including this class in your life.

- Buy the text book at the beginning of the semester and begin reading.
- Read the chapter assigned for the day before coming to class.
- Turn assignments in on time
- Know where your syllabus is and the schedule for the class.
- Know how to contact your instructor and contact her if you are having difficulties of any kind that are interfering with school.
- Take notes during class
- Take notes while reading the text- outlining the chapter and writing out the key concepts.
- Be on time for class with your cell phone off and ready to experience the class
- Have a designated study area that is distraction free.

Quizzes:

There will be two quizzes on the material from the text throughout the semester. The day of the quiz you have the option of turning in a prequiz review which includes a completed outline of the review given and the answers to the following questions: 1. What have you learned from this unit? 2. Why is this material important? 3. How is the material related to my life? 4. What questions do you now have about the material? This review will count towards up to 15 points of the quiz grade. The in class quizzes will consist of multiple choice questions. If you have a difficulty making it to class on the day of the quiz please let me know right away. No make ups will be given after the quizzes have been graded and returned, which will be the next class period.

Pop Quizzes:

At unannounced times during the semester pop quizzes will be administered. The quizzes will be covering material assigned to that point. You will not be allowed to make these quizzes up if you are not present when they are given. These quizzes count for a total of 40 points towards your final grade.

Exams:

There will be a midterm and a final exam this semester. They will both be cumulative and worth 180 points each. If you have a difficulty preventing you from coming to class on the day of the midterm or final please let me know right away so arrangements can be made for you to take the test in the ASC. No make ups will be given after the exams have been graded and returned, which will be the next class period.

Writing Assignments:

There will be two writing assignments this semester 5 points will be taken off for everyday that a paper is turned in late. The papers will be graded on content, organization, spelling and grammar, thorough assessment of the topic, utilization of sources and documentation of sources. They need to be double spaced, typed in 12 font.

Paper #1: Personal Project:

This paper will be a chance for you to reflect on your reasons for taking this course and your personal history with sexual education. For this paper you will be personally interacting with the material and examining how this course is relevant in your life.

Choose one of the following topics for this paper.

1. Discuss how your family/cultural/ religious influences have affected your views on sexuality.
2. Watch 2 movies or TV series that you are exposed to. While watching the media for this paper pay attention to the discussion of gender roles and relationships. In your paper discuss your observations and the effect you feel the media has on you.
3. Write a history of your sexual experiences and sexual education.
4. Attend an annual health exam including STI screening and report in your paper how you protect your sexual health.
5. Reflect on significant relationships you have had in your life. Examine how communication has taken place within the relationship, if you think it was a healthy relationship and what you are seeking in relationships.

This paper needs to be 3-5 pages long. If outside sources are utilized for this assignment, make sure you cite sources. This paper will be worth 150 points which will be assessed as follows:

Content

100 points possible

This score includes how thoroughly you evaluate the chosen topic in the 3-5 pages. Content should be concise and well organized around the topic.

Paper should address how knowledge obtained through this course impacts relational choices, family planning and/or safe sex practices.

Organization 25 points possible

This score is for the organization of sentences and paragraphs throughout the paper. Sentences should be complete and paragraphs need to flow logically addressing the topic.

Spelling and grammar 25 points possible

(One point will be deducted for every mistake.) Please edit carefully.

Paper #2: Research Paper

For this paper you will need to complete research on a chosen topic. This paper will not be a personal opinion paper, but a paper describing current research on the topic.

Your first step in this assignment is to turn in an outline listing your topic and how you will be organizing it. Along with turning in the outline you will need to turn in at least one research article that you will be utilizing for your paper. The outline is worth 30 points.

You can choose a topic from those listed below. If you have other ideas for paper topics please let me know.

1. Complete research on current incident rates of STI's and treatments in this country. Make sure you include in your discussion a description of the course of the infections/disease.
2. Complete research on varying positions in this country on sexual education. Include in your discussion research that would support positions.
3. Research the effects of cohabitation on relationships.
4. Research the factors that contribute to a happy relationship.
5. Examine how sexuality changes throughout the life span.
6. Research different sexual dysfunctions and discuss their incident rates, course, and treatments.
7. Examine different types of contraception available currently. Describe their effectiveness and rate of usage.

8. Research the effects of alcohol and drugs on making choices in sexual relationships.
9. Research current theories on the continuum of sexual orientation. Include in your discussion varying theories on this topic and current research trends.
 - Make sure you fully cover the topic in an academic manner. The research should be current and verifiable by author and or organization. Utilize the research tools available through the library for your research not Google.
 - The paper needs to be written in APA format, 3- 5 pages. You can access a handout on APA formatting on the CR library homepage. OWLS at Purdue and Diana Hacker.com are also good on-line sources for help with formatting. We will discuss formatting in class.
 - At least 3 sources need to be utilized.
 - This project, including the outline and paper, is worth 200 points.
 - The attached rubric will be used to grade your paper.
 - No papers will be accepted after Dec 5th.

* I will make every effort to follow the standards and schedule established in this syllabus. I will inform you as soon as possible of any changes.
