Academic Honesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such a case where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: Student Code of Conduct. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive Classroom Behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, he or she may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website at: Student Code of Conduct. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the college catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Emergency Procedures

Please review the campus evacuation sites for whenever you are on campus (posted by the exit of each room). Emergency maps are available at District Maps. For more information on Public Safety, go to Public Safety. In an emergency that requires an evacuation of the building:

- Be aware of all marked exits from your area and building.
- Once outside, move to the nearest evacuation point outside your building.
- Keep streets and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel.
- Do not leave campus, unless it has been deemed safe by the campus authorities.

RAVE – College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system. In the event of an emergency on campus, you can receive an alert through your personal email, and/or phones at your home, office, and cell. Registration is necessary in order to receive emergency alerts. Please go to RAVE Login and use the "Register" button on the top right portion of the registration page to create an account. During the registration process you can elect to add additional information, such as office phone, home phone, cell phone, and personal email. Please use your CR email address as your primary Registration Email. Your CR email address ends with "redwoods.edu." Please contact Public Safety, 707-476-4112, security@redwoods.edu, if you have any questions.

College of the Redwoods is committed to equal opportunity in employment, admission to the college, and in the conduct of all of its programs and activities.

SYLLABUS

COURSE DELIVERY

Welcome to your online class of General Psychology. This is the course syllabus, which contains vital information you'll need to know to successfully complete the course. Please read the entire syllabus.

IMPORTANT DATES

- The course runs from May 23 through July 14.
- Census Date is June 2.
- Last Day to Drop with a "W" is June 24.

THE CANVAS COURSE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (COURSE WEBSITE)

This course is taught 100% online. We will not meet face to face. All instruction will take place using the Canvas Course Management System. Here are login instructions for Canvas:

1. Open your web browser and go to <https://redwoods.instructure.com>. Or, go to <http://www.redwoods.edu> and click on "Canvas."
2. Enter your username and password.
 - a. Your username is your Web Advisor login (e.g., flast123 – first initial + last name + last three digits of your student ID number).
 - b. The initial password for everyone is your six-digit birthday (mmdyy).
4. Once logged in, find the link for this class. Click the link to enter the course. If you need assistance logging in please go to the following webpage:
<https://redwoods.instructure.com/courses/739/pages/student-login>.

CONFIRMING YOUR PRESENCE IN THE VIRTUAL CLASSROOM

After you have logged on for the first time, you must confirm your presence in the online classroom. Go to the "Introductions" discussion forum and follow the instructions given there by no later than 11:59 PM, May 23, 2016. This will establish your enrollment in the course and you will avoid being dropped as a "no show." Students may be dropped from the class if they do not log in and post to the "Introductions" discussion forum by the above deadline.

WAITLIST

If you are on the waitlist you will be added to the class Monday prior to the beginning of classes.

COMMUNICATION

My preferred method of communication is the messaging feature within Canvas. When you first log on you'll see an icon that says "Inbox." In it, find our class and send me a message. I will usually reply within 24 hours Sunday through Thursday and within 48 hours Fridays and Saturdays. If for some reason you cannot access the Canvas website, send me an email.

GETTING PREPARED FOR CLASS

Are you ready for online classes? Please take about 15 minutes to review what it means to take an online class by watching the Introduction to Online Learning presentation at: <https://apps.3cm mediasolutions.org/oei/01-Introduction-to-Online-Learning/index.html>. In addition, here are some other resources to help you.

- What to expect when taking an online course: <http://www.redwoods.edu/online/>
- Learn more about the Canvas Course Management System: <https://redwoods.instructure.com/courses/739>
- See what other community college students have to say about what it takes to be a successful online student: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CFEK52EE5ps&feature=youtu.be>.

TIME MANAGEMENT AND STUDENT COMMITMENT

Good time management is a key to success in college, especially in your online classes. Students are often surprised by how much time it takes to complete the work in an online course. With that said, expect to spend 9 to 12 hours per week working on this class. Conscientiousness, attention to detail, and skills in reading and writing are critical for success. Your commitment will require at least as much effort as you dedicate to a traditional class. For example, you may be required to:

- Read online lectures and textbook chapters
- Participate in online activities and watch online videos
- Participate in online discussions, and
- Complete online quizzes and exams.

COMPUTER SKILLS

Online courses require adequate computer skills. It is your responsibility to meet the technological demands of the course. You must be able to:

- Navigate the Course Management System (Canvas)
- Receive and respond to your CR email. Course related messages will go to your “mycr” email address
- Download and upload files to the Canvas website
- Use a word processor
- Download and open PowerPoint files (.ppt)
- Download and open Microsoft Word documents (.doc)
- Use Adobe Reader to read PDF documents (.pdf)
- Convert word processing files to PDF format
- Download and listen to mp3 digital audio files
- Install Adobe Shockwave and Flash Player as plug-ins to your web browser.

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS

It is your responsibility to ensure that your computer and internet service provider are adequate and reliable to take this online course. You should have, at the least, broadband services from cable, DSL, or satellite providers. You need reliable and sufficient access to the internet for the entire semester.

Anticipate problems that may arise with your computer or internet access (including laptop failures and power outages) by not waiting until the last minute to submit assignments. Having a technical issue will not count as a legitimate excuse for missed deadlines.

PORTABLE DEVICES VS. COMPUTERS

Although you can use late-model portable devices (such as Android or iOS phones & tablets) for some things, you should plan on doing the majority of your work (especially exams and assignments) from a reasonably late-model notebook or desktop computer (Mac or PC). If you use your portable device for some of your class work, use the free Canvas app (called “Canvas by Instructure”) available in iTunes (for iOS) and the Google Play Store (for Android). It is unadvised to try to connect to Canvas using a web browser on a portable device. Your experience with Canvas will be a lot better using the app.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

The required textbook for this course is Exploring Psychology, 10th edition (DSM-V update), by David G. Myers and Nathan DeWall, from Worth Publishers. It is available from the CR bookstore and from sellers online. There is also an electronic edition. Use this info when ordering your copy: ISBN-13: 978-1464154072.

CLASS ETIQUETTE

Please familiarize yourself with the Student Code of Conduct, found here:

<http://www.redwoods.edu/District/Board/New/Chapter5/AP%205500%20Conduct%20Code%20final%2002-07-2012.pdf>. In general, if we all abide by the following rules we should get along just fine:

- All work must be your own, completed by you without assistance from anyone, other than basic editing;
- Be respectful when communicating with your fellow students and with your instructor.

REGULAR ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

This is an online course. It is essential that you regularly participate in the class. You must have regular access to the Internet and be able to log on regularly, including on any day an event occurs or an item is due. If you cannot meet these requirements and participate in the class, you should not take this class. Class participation is defined as completing each weekly module. Please note my policies about lack of course participation.

- Students who do not log on by the confirmation date may be dropped from the course.
- Students who do not complete all assignments by census will be dropped from the course.
- Students who show a pattern of excessively missing assignments will be dropped from the course.

EVALUATION, GRADING AND COURSE POLICIES

The course is organized around units, accompanied by chapter readings. Each unit is activated on a Monday and runs for one week. Each unit has a corresponding Discussion and two Quizzes. In addition, you'll write an analysis paper and a final reflection paper. Regular participation is key to success in this class. Regular participation in this class is defined as completing each weekly module. Please be sure that you keep up with the assigned textbook readings and participate in discussions.

QUIZZES (30%) For each unit there will be a reading quiz (all combined equaling 10% of your final grade) and a concept quiz (combined = 20% of your grade). Quizzes are timed, open-book, and open-notes.

DISCUSSION FORUM (30%) For each unit there is a discussion forum. You respond to a weekly prompt and then respond to each other. The forum is a weekly writing assignment where your fellow students, in addition to your instructor, will see your work.

ANALYSIS PAPER (20%) You have a proposal due at the start of week 3 and a three- to five-page analysis essay due at midterm (beginning of week 5). More details can be found in the modules.

REFLECTION PAPER (20%) You have a three- to five-page reflection essay at the end of the term. More details can be found in the modules.

GRADING The Canvas website will show your current grade in the class as a percentage. The following is the grading scale that I use in determining your final letter grade:

A = 93% and above

A- = 90-92%

B+ = 88-89%

B = 83-87%

B- = 80-82%

C+ = 78-79%

C = 70-77%

D = 50-69%

F = 49% and below

An Incomplete (I) is given at your instructor's discretion and will only be granted to those students who continue to participate in class, have completed all prior work, and who have made arrangements with me by the end of the 15th week. This is a rare privilege and is not granted lightly.

COURSE SYLLABUS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

While I make every effort to follow the standards and schedule of this syllabus, there may be times when changes are necessary. I will inform the class using the Announcements tool.
