Catalog Description

A course focusing on applied psychology. This course surveys psychological theories and empirical research in personal growth, personality development, and adjustment. Topics covered include: personality development, self-esteem, stress and coping, health, psychology of love and sex, gender roles, mental health diagnoses, work, and group behavior. Students will learn to apply psychological theories and principles to their own lives while examining personal barriers to learning, personal effectiveness, and interpersonal relationships.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

1. Explain concepts in areas of psychological theory and research while utilizing appropriate terms to represent the biopsychosocial perspective for development across the lifespan.
2. Describe specific research methods and the general principles of research ethics for the study of human beings, including the safeguards and the peer-review process in science.
3. Analyze psychological research and apply concepts to self and others in writing for life-long personal growth.
4. Differentiate between individual and sociocultural differences as applied to psychology of adjustment.

Recommended preparation

General Psychology; English 150

Accessibility

College of the Redwoods is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. If you have a disability or believe you might benefit from disability-related services and accommodations, please contact your instructor or Disability Services and Programs for Students (DSPS). Students may make requests for alternative media by contacting DSPS based on their campus location:

- ) Eureka: 707-476-4280, student services building, 1st floor
- ) Del Norte: 707-465-2324, main building near the library
- ) Klamath-Trinity: 530-625-4821 Ext 103

If you are taking online classes DSPS will email approved accommodations for distance education classes to your instructor. In the case of face-to-face instruction, please present your written accommodation request to your instructor at least one week before the needed accommodation so that necessary arrangements can be made. Last-minute arrangements or post-test adjustments usually cannot be accommodated.

COVID Adjustments

Our course will follow all edicts and requirements as set forth by the college administration adhering to state guidelines and protocols; presently, our course instructional format is face-to-face. However, there is potential that this format may change; changes could include the necessity of reformatting to a hybridized or distance education instructional format. As I receive information affecting protocols and procedures, I will inform students.

Grading Scale

A 100% - 90% B 89% - 80% C 79% - 70% D 69% - 60% F below 60% NP below 70%

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Every discussion forum, quiz, written assignment, or other assessment is accompanied by a clear grading rubric that states the parameters and standards relative to the assessment type. This course will use a standard 100% grading calculation (e.g. there are no weighted or curved grades). All assessments are due by the recorded and delineated date (though you may complete assessments early). Late work will not receive credit unless arrangements have been made at least three (3) days prior unless there is a legitimate, documented emergency.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade, and the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include but is not limited to unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It, therefore, encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students can have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. It does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update Form.

Canvas Information

This course utilizes the Canvas learning management system (LMS) for course enhancement. Familiarize yourself with Canvas before you begin coursework. You should log in to Canvas course shell the day before class meets to see if there are any updates in "announcements". If you make an inquiry of the instructor, I will respond within 24 hours during the week (M-F).

Emergency procedures / Everbridge

College of the Redwoods has implemented an emergency alert system called Everbridge. In the event of an emergency on campus, you will receive an alert through your email and/or phones. Registration is not necessary to receive emergency alerts. Check to make sure your contact information is up-to-date by logging into WebAdvisor <https://webadvisor.redwoods.edu> and selecting 'Students' then 'Academic Profile' then 'Current Information Update.'

Please contact Public Safety at 707-476-4112 or security@redwoods.edu if you have any questions. For more information see the Redwoods Public Safety Page.

Eureka Campus Emergency Procedures

Please review the campus emergency map for evacuation sites, including the closest site to this classroom (posted by the exit of each room). For more information on Public Safety go to the Redwoods Public Safety Page It is the responsibility of College of the Redwoods to protect life and property from the effects of emergency situations within its own jurisdiction.

In the event of an emergency:

1. Evaluate the impact the emergency has on your activity/operation and take appropriate action.

Syllabus insert.doc

2. Dial 911, to notify local agency support such as law enforcement or fire services.

3. Notify Public Safety 707-476-4111 and inform them of the situation, with as much relevant information as possible.

4. Public Safety shall relay threat information, warnings, and alerts through the Everbridge emergency alert system, Public address system, and when possible, updates on the college website, to ensure the school community is notified.

5. Follow established procedures for the specific emergency as outlined in the College of the Redwoods Emergency Procedure Booklet, (evacuation to a safe zone, shelter in place, lockdown, assist others if possible, cooperate with First Responders, etc.).

6. If safe to do so, notify key administrators, departments, and personnel.

7. Do not leave campus, unless it is necessary to preserve life and/or has been deemed safe by the person in command.
