FINAL EXAM: Dec 11, 2023, 3:15 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Attend/participate:

Decisions are made by those who show up. Therefore, you will receive 5 points for every class you attend and participate in. Attendance may be taken in the traditional way or there may be an activity we do that shows you attended. If you miss more than two unexcused lectures your grade will be directly affected.

Chapter Quizzes:

There will be a quiz posted to Canvas for each chapter of the book. Questions will be from the chapter and the corresponding lecture power point and will be multiple choice. You will have two attempts for each quiz. The quizzes will be worth 20 points and you will be able to miss two without hurting your final grade.

Mid-Term October 11th:

There will be one midterm exam the eighth week of class. It will contain multiple choice, short answer and essay questions and will be worth 100 points. The midterm will cover all chapters, lecture power points and activities we have covered up to that point and is open note and open book.

Annotated Bibliography due by: October 27th

Guidelines (a template will be available on canvas)

- You are going to investigate research about the topic you chose for this Annotated Bibliography.
- One article is provided for you, chosen because it gives you background information on the topic.
- You will then find two additional academic research articles that dive deeper into a specific hypothesis, theory or focus within the topic you chose.
 - For example, you can focus on a specific hypothesis or theory that helps to explain developmental disabilities or cultures affect on development from a psychological perspective.
 - Or you can choose a focus within the topic you chose, health disparity from socioeconomic status, happiness levels compared to number of close friends, adoption based on differences in personality traits, rise in self-critical comments with increase in social media use, etc.
- It is suggested to use the College of the Redwoods library LibGuides for your research: <https://redwoods.libguides.com/how-to-research>
- You will provide an APA reference page style citation and (at least) one-page paraphrased summary per article for your annotated bibliography
- https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/apa_style/apa_formatting_and_style_guide/general_format.html

Grading

- This assignment is worth 50 points.
 - Citation/APA format = 5 points
 - Paraphrased summary = 10 points
 - Title page = 5 points
 - Annotated Bibliography = 15 points per article, 45 points total

Paper Outline due by: Friday, November 17th

Guidelines (a template will be available on canvas)

- This will be a simple outline to help you organize your paper. There will be a reference page on the template where you are encouraged to start working on them, this will not be required for this assignment but will be on the final paper.
- You will be outlining your introduction, the body of your paper and the conclusion.

Grading

- This assignment is worth 50 points.
 - Introduction = 15 points
 - Body = 20 points
 - Conclusion = 15 points

Paper Due by: Friday December 8th

Guidelines (a template will be available on canvas)

- You will be completing a student paper formatted in APA 7th edition style.
- The paper will be on a topic of your choice from one of the psychology areas covered in each chapter of the book.
- You will be able to talk about the area generally or get more specific on any topic in that area.
- Once you have selected a topic to write about, one journal article will be provided to help you research your topic.
- You will be making a thesis/argument about the topic you choose and using research and theories to support your idea.

Grading

- This assignment is worth 150 points.
 - APA formatting including citations and reference page = 30 points.
 - Content – student needs to adequately explain the topic and research used and be able to analyze and synthesize the research in the writing = 80 points
 - Credibility of sources = 15 points
 - Organization of information = 15 points
 - Spelling and grammar = 10 points

Presentation due by: Wednesday December 6th

Guidelines

- Every student will give a 5-minute presentation on one of the topics covered.
- Students can do the presentation in groups of up to 4 or by themselves. In groups each student will need to present for 5-minutes.
- Research, history and current information or therapies used that relate to the topic will be discussed in your presentations.

Grading

- This assignment is worth 50 points.
 - The presentation needs to be more than 4 but less than 6 minutes = 10 points.
 - Show understanding of the topic and ability to effectively communicate the information = 30 points.
 - Relate presentation to classmates = 10 points.

FINAL EXAM: Dec 11, 2023, 3:15 p.m. – 5:15 p.m.

The final for this class will use the same format as the mid-term. The content will be mostly what has been covered after the mid-term with a small amount from before the mid-term. The final is worth 150 points of your grade.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student’s status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include, but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
