Catalog Description

A course in the scientific study of human development across the lifespan. The content takes an integrative approach that includes the biological foundations and major theories: psychodynamic, behavioral, social cognitive, contextual (e.g., sociocultural), and cognitive. Topics include prenatal, infant, child, adolescent, and adult development.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (from course outline of record)

- (1) Analyze how biological, psychological, and social processes affect human development.
- (2) Demonstrate knowledge and understanding representing appropriate breadth and depth in selected content areas of prenatal, infant, child, adolescent, and adult development.
- (3) Analyze and/or apply developmental research in writing.
- (4) Identify and describe classic and contemporary theories and research in lifespan psychology.
- (5) Identify and describe the techniques and methods used by developmental psychologists to study human development.
- (6) Identify possible causes or sources of developmental change and reasons for disturbances in the developmental process

Textbook Required

The class requires the textbook: Human Development: A Cultural Approach (3rd Ed) by Arnett, Jeffrey Jensen and Jensen, Lene Arnett (2019), Pearson. Textbook (9780134641348) can be purchased new, used, e-book, Revel version, or rented from a commercial vendor such as the College of the Redwoods Bookstore, or direct through Pearson Publishing. If you purchase the Pearson REVEL edition which includes more support information and practice quizzes, be aware that all grading and quizzes required will be within the CANVAS modules and not through REVEL, you will only use Revel for textbook content.

Note: We use the 3rd edition, although it is similar to the 1st and 2nd editions in its chapter layout. The earlier editions are less expensive substitutes, although some content and exam answers may not be found in the earlier editions as the quiz questions come the 3rd edition. If you order a hardcopy from a vendor, try to order next day air as the class begins the very first day of class and quizzes start the first week. You may get free access to the REVEL online ebook through Pearson Publishing for 2 weeks only, I've been told. Here is REVEL link

Student Support

Good information and clear communication about your needs will help you be successful. Please let your instructor know about any specific challenges or technology limitations that might affect your participation in class. College of the Redwoods wants every student to be successful.

Evaluation & Grading Policy

Chapter Quizzes (220 points) There will be a multiple-choice quiz on each chapter based on the textbook readings. Questions are randomly drawn from a pool and you have 2 hours to complete the quiz. Quizzes are open for one week and are open book. You can only take the quiz once, but your two lowest scores will be dropped from your final grade. There are no makeup quizzes. Correct answers are available after the deadline. You will find the quizzes in the Modules, Assignments and Quiz link.

Class Discussions (240 points) There will be a discussion question on each chapter based on questions posted and video prompts. You may earn up to 20 points per discussion. This is an important and required part of the class and provides you an opportunity to engage with other students. Grading is based on your initial response to the prompt (14 pts possible) and a response to at least 2 fellow students, commenting on their post and asking them a question (6 pts possible). Please see detailed grading rubric in the Discussion Board and Modules in the Canvas course for more detail. Posts are due on the deadline. You have one day after the deadline to post but will lose 3 points. Your two lowest or missed scores will be dropped from your final grade. Be sure to respond to our first Discussion Welcome and Student Introductions. The discussion forum is accessed in the Modules link, Assignments and Discussion Board.

Midterm: Research Application Essay (50 pts) This will be a 4-10 (max) page essay on a developmental stages applied to your experience. Please see detailed guidelines in the Course Modules in CANVAS. 5 pts deducted for each day late.

Exams (30 pts) There will be a short quiz on the syllabus requirements the first week of class. (10 pts) There will be a final exam multiple choice quiz based on the course student learning outcomes (listed at the beginning of this syllabus) at the end of class. (20 pts)

Extra Credit/Make-up policy (20 pts) You may earn 20 extra credit points towards your grade by completing the Course evaluation at the end of class. There are no make-ups for missed work, so please review the course calendar/assignment deadlines and write them down. If a student misses 3 or more assignments in a row and is failing the class, I may drop the student with a W, but it is the student's responsibility to drop a class, to avoid a failing grade. Please contact me if you do not wish to be dropped with a W in that event. I suggest completing work at least 2 days before the deadline so you don't miss anything, given Murphy's Law.

Class Schedule

All course content (except textbook) is in the Modules section of CANVAS. Students should read all information in the modules including Instructions, Lecture notes, Power points, videos and any supplemental videos or readings. The corresponding chapter in the textbook should be read before completing the quizzes. Please note these deadlines in your calendar. You may also look at the calendar in CANVAS to review deadlines.

Academic dishonesty

In the academic community, the high value placed on truth implies a corresponding intolerance of scholastic dishonesty. In cases involving academic dishonesty, determination of the grade and of the student's status in the course is left primarily to the discretion of the faculty member. In such cases, where the instructor determines that a student has demonstrated academic dishonesty, the student may receive a failing grade for the assignment and/or exam and may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Disruptive behavior

Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include but is not limited to: unwarranted interruptions; failure to adhere to instructor's directions; vulgar or obscene language; slurs or other forms of intimidation; and physically or verbally abusive behavior. In such cases where the instructor determines that a student has disrupted the educational process, a disruptive student may be temporarily removed from class. In addition, the student may be reported to the Chief Student Services Officer or designee. The Student Code of Conduct (AP 5500) is available on the College of the Redwoods website. Additional information about the rights and responsibilities of students, Board policies, and administrative procedures is located in the College Catalog and on the College of the Redwoods website.

Inclusive Language in the Classroom

College of the Redwoods aspires to create a learning environment in which all people feel comfortable in contributing their perspectives to classroom discussions. It therefore encourages instructors and students to use language that is inclusive and respectful.

Setting Your Preferred Name in Canvas

Students have the ability to have an alternate first name and pronouns to appear in Canvas. Contact Admissions & Records to request a change to your preferred first name and pronoun. Your Preferred Name will only be listed in Canvas. This does not change your legal name in our records. See the Student Information Update form.
